Background

As the Housing Policy Plan begins to take shape over the next months, the Community Development Committee and the full Council will be of critical help in resolving remaining policy questions and ensuring consistency with Thrive and other Council systems and policy plans. To that end, Manager of Regional Policy and Research Libby Starling, and Housing Planning Analysts Tara Beard and Jonathan Stanley will provide a general update on Housing Policy Plan progress and the ongoing process, with a focus on:

- The detailed timeline for publication;
- A refresher on key tools already in use by the Council in the housing domain;
- Discussion of the draft Plan outline; and
- Dialogue on topical areas likely to be controversial or where consensus has not otherwise emerged within the Housing Policy Plan Work Group.
