Background

The Livable Communities Act (LCA) awards grants through the Local Housing Initiatives Account (LHIA) for the production and preservation of affordable rental and ownership housing. The LCA requires that the Council adopt an annual Fund Distribution Plan (FDP) which outlines how projects are funded, including threshold and competitive criteria for project evaluation. To determine how LHIA funding will be allocated, the Metropolitan Council partners with Minnesota Housing in their Consolidated Request for Proposals (RFP) process, as well as consults with cities and counties designated as tax credit sub-allocators that may have additional recommendations for affordable housing projects eligible for LHIA: Minneapolis, Saint Paul, Washington County and Dakota County.

Application Review Process

Minnesota Housing and sub-allocators, evaluate development proposals by first conducting a preliminary completeness and eligibility review of funding applications based on internal underwriting standards. In addition to considering the financial feasibility of proposals, both review the proposer’s organizational capacity to deliver the project and how projects align with Agency, or sub-allocator, criteria. Council staff, using the 2021 LCA Fund Distribution Plan (2021 FDP), also evaluates affordable housing projects based on LHIA criteria, prioritizing those recommended by Minnesota Housing and sub-allocators.

Not all applications received through the Consolidated RFP, or sub-allocator recommendation processes, request or are eligible for LHIA funding. Additionally, not all available sources of funding are as flexible as the LHIA funds. In some cases, projects that fit well with the goals of the Livable Communities Act are not awarded LHIA funds because other funds fit the project better. Conversely, sometimes projects applying to the Consolidated RFP request LHIA funds only. Staff evaluate any LHIA-eligible projects submitted to the Consolidated RFP but do prioritize projects that are being funded by Consolidated RFP partners and need LHIA funds to fully fund the project.

By the July 15, the 2021 application deadline, Minnesota Housing and its funding partners received applications for 64 multifamily and 41 single-family proposals. Additionally, sub-allocators recommended five projects that did not apply for funding through the Consolidated RFP. From these proposals, projects eligible for LHIA were then evaluated on the criteria outlined in the 2021 FDP. Table 1 lists the eleven LHIA projects staff are recommending, which includes six multifamily rental and four single family ownership, totaling $8 million. Table 2 below details the total number of applications received both within the metropolitan area and in Greater Minnesota. As is illustrated below, the majority of the applications received were for multi-family rental projects.

Table 2. Summary of Minnesota Housing Applications Received

Program Type	Number of Applications Submitted	Metro	Greater Minnesota	Total # Recommended for Funding
Multifamily Rental	64	39	25	22
Single Family Ownership	41	26	15	36
Total	105	65	40	58

There were 43 proposals in the metropolitan area not recommended by any Minnesota Housing or partner funding this round. Unfunded requests in the communities of Bloomington, Brooklyn Center, Brooklyn Park, Burnsville, Coon Rapids, Cottage Grove, Elko New Market, Long Lake, Maplewood, Minneapolis, Richfield, Saint Louis Park, Saint Paul, and Shakopee, totaling almost $264 million in funding requests. These proposals were not recommended for funding because of their lower scoring, insufficient amount of funds available to meet all requests, and/or the selection committee’s assessment that the proposals were premature for funding at this time.

Coordination with Funding Partners

As Table 3 shows, the recommended awards will align LHIA funding with other significant public and private investments. LHIA dollars will help leverage almost $88 million in private investments and over $112 million in other public investments to provide safe, affordable housing to low- and moderate-income residents in the metro area.

Addressing Affordable Housing Need

The 2021-2030 Allocation of Affordable Housing Need is based on forecasted growth as adopted in community's comprehensive plans. The Council provides need numbers in the 2040 Housing Policy Plan so that local governments may plan for their share of new need for affordable housing. This share is proportional to a city's overall forecasted growth, its existing affordable housing stock, and the ratio of low-wage jobs to low-wage earning residents.

The units proposed in this grant cycle are projected to be available for occupancy in varying timeframes but generally falling between 2023 and 2025. Table 7 shows the projected affordable housing need, at three levels of affordability, for the decade between 2021 and 2030 and the number of proposed affordable units that are expected to be built in each city for projects recommended for funding. If completed as planned, the proposed affordable units supported by LHIA grant funding will address part of the affordable housing need for each of those cities in the next decade.

Regionally, the annual need in the 2021-2030 decade for new units affordable at 30% AMI or less is 1,891. While the 289 units affordable at 30% AMI that are being recommended for 2021 through the Consolidated RFP help the applying cities address their deeply affordable housing needs at a significant level, it is important to note that this represents only 15% of the region's annual need for housing at this affordability level. While this is slightly higher than the share funded in 2020, it is still substantially lower than the shares of housing affordable being funded at 31-80% AMI.

Table 7. Affordable Housing Need by AMI Level and Total Proposed Affordable Units for LHIA Projects Recommended for Funding⁴

⁴Affordable Housing Need is based on forecasted growth and therefore does not include preservation units.

⁵Area Median Income (AMI) is the midpoint of a region's income distribution – half of families in a region earn more than the median and half earn less than the median. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) defines and calculates different levels of AMI for geographic areas across the country within three levels of affordability: At or below 30% AMI, between 31 and 50% AMI and between 51 and 80% AMI.

Rationale

The housing proposals recommended for LHIA funding support housing development, preservation, and affordability opportunities consistent with both local and regional policies and goals. They include both new construction and rehabilitation of rental and ownership units that support revitalization and reinvestment efforts in aging and/or declining areas and provide affordable housing opportunities near areas of significant employment and population growth. These housing efforts involve activities and public investment that advance Thrive MSP 2040 outcomes and principles.

In addition to implementing the Livable Communities Act - Local Housing Incentives Account and the Council's 2040 Housing Policy Plan, these grant awards also further the Council's 2020-2022 Strategic Plan. The foremost Housing Goal in the 2020-2022 Strategic Plan is to "become a region with a broader housing spectrum where all people can thrive".

Thrive Lens Analysis

The Council's investment in these affordable housing projects advances several Thrive outcomes.

- The Council will "encourage preservation of existing housing where rehabilitation is a cost-effective strategy to maintain housing" and "collaborate with regional housing partners and funders to identify priorities for preserving affordable housing and available resources" (Stewardship).
- Many of these projects introduce new affordability levels, or housing types, to the areas in which they are located which "helps create and preserve mixed-income neighborhoods and housing choices across the region" (Prosperity).
- These projects also "help close the gap between the region's affordable housing need and the supply, especially in areas underserved by affordable housing and to house extremely-low-income households earning less than 30% of the area median income" (Equity).
- Several of the LHIA projects also support the Council's efforts to "encourage and invest in a wide variety of housing options throughout the region to serve an increasingly diverse population, including viable housing choices for low- and moderate-income households and senior households" (Livability).

Funding

There is typically $1.5 million available for LHIA awards annually. In its 2021 Livable Communities Fund Distribution Plan (FDP), the Council approved $4 million for LHIA awards. Following the approval, the Metropolitan Council amended the FDP to include an additional $4 million increasing the LHIA award total to $8 million for 2021 to support projects that would advance racial equity in the region (Business Item 2021-84 SW).

Known Support / Opposition
