INFORMATION

1. Water Resources Policy Plan - Water Supply

Ali Elhassan, Manager of Water Supply Planning, reviewed the current water policy plan, new issues and areas of concern. Emerging issues include: the current approach to water supply management and development is unsustainable; aquifer levels have declined; lakes, streams and wetlands are damaged. "Business as usual" is not a solution. Region needs to restore balance among water resources, maintain and enhance recharge capacity, and practice conservation. The Council needs to develop growth plans that ensure sustainable water supply. Next steps for water supply include: refining proposed policies, drafting implementation strategies for policies, and drafting metrics for policies.

2. General Manager's Report

Leisa Thompson informed the committee that all plants were in full compliance with NPDES permits, with the metro plant at 17 months and all others at 74 months of continuous permit requirements.
