

Business Item 2016-8:

Authorization to Negotiate and Execute an Engineering Services Master Contract 15P160 for Design and Construction Support for Metropolitan Wastewater Treatment Plant (MWWTP) Electrical Distribution and Facilities Improvements Projects

Rene Heflin, Assistant Manager Engineering Services

Environment Committee: January 12, 2016

Metropolitan Wastewater Treatment Plant

Compressor Building

Main Electrical Substation

Effluent Pumping Station

Switchgear Lineup in the Compressor Building

Effluent Pumping Station

Proposals

- An evaluation panel reviewed 5 proposals received September 24, 2015
- Evaluation Criteria: Quality, Qualifications, Experience and Service Delivery Plan
- Black and Veatch proposal received the highest overall ranking
 - demonstrated the most directly-related experience
 - cost proposal, reasonable and in alignment with MCES budget cost estimate of $6,000,000

Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) Goals

- Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) goal of 7.5%
- Women's Business Enterprise (WBE) goal of 7.5%
- MCES Office of Equal Opportunity (OEO) review
 - Black and Veatch's proposal meets the DBE goals

RECOMMENDATION

- That the Metropolitan Council authorize its Regional Administrator to execute an Engineering Services Master Contract for the design and construction support for Metropolitan Wastewater Treatment Plant (MWWTP) electrical distribution and facilities improvements projects, Contract 15P160 to Black & Veatch Corporation in the amount of $6,000,000.

Questions