

EAC 2023 Annual Presentation to the Council Planning

Equity Advisory Committee End of Year Presentation to the Council

What is the EAC End of Year presentation and Why is it Important?

The purpose of the end of year presentation for the Equity Advisory Committee at the Metropolitan Council is to share the progress made in advancing equity initiatives throughout the previous year, identify impact of work, and develop strategic recommendations to further promote equity within the organization.

Roles and Responsibilities

Who is Responsible for the EAC end of year presentation?

- EAC Members are responsible for creating an EAC presentation and presenting the Chair and Council Members.
- Chair and Co-Chair lead this space and appoint different parts of the presentation to EAC members.
- Presentation due date 3/19/2024

Presentation Steps

EAC Presentation Steps

1. Identify committee members for workgroup
2. Decide how committee members will communicate and create presentation
3. Review the EAC's contributions to equity initiatives presented to the Committee throughout the previous year.
4. Create a presentation that will be used to present year end information to the Council
5. Attend Council meeting to present to Council Chair and Council Members.

Commentary from EAC Members

Questions to the Committee

- What ideas or concepts should be included in the end of the year presentation?
- What resources does the committee need to create a presentation and to present to the committee?
- Name of committee members interested in volunteer

End of Year Presentation Timeline Discussion

Month	Task	Comments
January- March
April- June
July-August
September- December

Office of Equity and Equal Opportunity
Equity Implementation Unit

