Management Committee

Meeting date: February 8, 2017

For the Metropolitan Council meeting of February 22, 2017

Subject: Metropolitan Council Policy, 4-6 Employee Conduct Revision

District(s), Member(s): All

Policy/Legal Reference: 4-6 – Employee Conduct

Staff Prepared/Presented: Marcy Syman, Director of Human Resources, 651-602-1417

Division/Department: Human Resources

Proposed Action

That the Metropolitan Council approve changes to the Metropolitan Council Policy 4-6 Employee Conduct.

Background

Policies must be presented to the Council for approval and adoption.

Rationale

This policy has been in place since 2006 and covers the following procedures:

4-6a: Code of Ethics

4-6b: Workplace Violence Prevention and Incident Response

4-6c: Investigations General

4-6d: Fraud

4-6e: Respectful Workplace

Policy statement was changed to provide the overall direction for these five procedures.

- Changed “abide by all laws” to a more reasonable – “abide by laws regulating conduct associated with employment at the Met Council” upon the advice of our Legal department
- Removed the prohibition of possession and distribution of weapons in this policy statement because this content is more appropriately contained in procedure 4-6b: Workplace Violence Prevention

Changes to the body of the policy:

- Added to the purpose of the policy: “to establish expectations relating to appropriate ethical conduct for all Metropolitan council employees”
- Updated Statue references

Removed definitions of violence, council premises, offensive conduct and unethical behavior since those are more appropriately contained in the relevant procedures under this policy

Thrive Lens Analysis

I. Policy

It is the policy of the Metropolitan Council to provide a respectful work environment and deliver public services in a manner that instills public confidence in Council business transactions and is free from violent, unethical or offensive conduct. The Metropolitan Council expects all employees while in the performance of Council-related business to:

- Abide by ~~all laws~~ regulating employee conduct associated with employment at the Metropolitan Council;
- Treat all people with respect and courtesy;
- Adhere to high professional standards and moral principles;
- Provide high standards of quality public service.

~~Employees shall not possess, use or distribute weapons except authorized employees whose work duties necessarily require that they carry weapons.~~ Incidents in violation of the employee conduct policy must be reported to management. Such incidents will be treated seriously, promptly investigated and acted upon. Retaliation against an individual ~~because of~~ reporting a violation of the employee conduct policy, or cooperating in an investigation, is prohibited.

~~Any individual employee found through an inquiry to have violated the employee conduct policy in the performance of their job, in the employment setting or while on Council premises, shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.~~

II. Purpose of policy

- To foster a safe work environment, decrease the potential for violence in and around the workplace and share responsibility for a positive workplace atmosphere among all employees.
- To assure all Metropolitan Council employees and their customers and clients that threats, violence, unethical and offensive behavior will not be tolerated.
- To establish expectations relating to appropriate ethical conduct for all Metropolitan Council employees
