

GARDEN CITY BALLROOM: Plenary 1

INTEGRATION AS PLANNING PRACTICE

MODERATOR – ERIC WOJCHIK

Tim Gladhill, City of Ramsey

Tim Gladhill is the Community Development Director for the City of Ramsey, providing leadership for the Land Use Planning, Zoning Administration, and Building Inspections. Tim joined the City of Ramsey as a Public Works Maintenance Worker in 2000, and the Community Development Department in 2006, focusing on land use planning. He is also the incoming President of the American Planning Association, Minnesota Chapter, after serving as the Chapter's Vice-President for the past four years. Tim holds a Bachelor's of Science in Urban and Regional Studies and a Bachelor's of Science in Geography from Minnesota State University, Mankato, and a Masters of Geographic Information Science with a Minor in Public Policy from the University of Minnesota.

Tina Goodroad, AICP, City of Dayton

Tina is a certified planner and has served communities for 23 years as a staff planner, a developer and consulting planner. She has served as the City of Dayton Planning and Development Director for the last 1.5 years after working as Dayton's consultant for almost 10 years. While consulting, Tina prepared numerous comprehensive plans for communities in Minnesota, North Dakota, and Iowa. Now that she is back to a City staff position, she looks forward to guiding Dayton through the 2040 Comprehensive Plan Update.

Lucy Thompson, City of St. Paul

Lucy Thompson is a Principal City Planner in the Saint Paul Department of Planning and Economic Development (PED). Since joining PED in 1988, she has worked on neighborhood planning, heritage preservation, riverfront redevelopment, infill mixed-use development, zoning, TOD, and urban design, and most recently on implementation of station area plans along the Green Line, and the City's Comprehensive Plan Update. Ms. Thompson is a member of the Saint Paul Design Center and in 2013 was awarded the Special Award from the Minnesota chapter of the American Institute of Architects in honor of her work and leadership on Saint Paul riverfront planning and development.
