COLLABORATIVE PLANNING THROUGH MULTI-JURISDICTIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

MODERATOR - PATRICK BOYLAN

Kari Collins, City of Roseville

Kari Collins, a Maplewood native, is the Community Development Director for the City of Roseville. She came to Roseville in 2012 from the City of Milwaukee, where she served as the Board Secretary and Zoning Administrator for the Board of Zoning Appeals. In 2012 she was hired as the Assistant to the City Manager and served for four years before stepping into the Director position. Collins has a political science degree from Augsburg College, and a Master's degree in Urban Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Michael Martin, AICP, City of Maplewood

Michael Martin is the Economic Development Coordinator for the City of Maplewood and the staff liaison for the City's Planning Commission, Housing and Economic Development Commission and Community Design Review Board. Mr. Martin has a master's degree in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of Minnesota's Humphrey School of Public Affairs. He is a certified planner by the American Institute of Certified Planners and recently completed the National Development Council's economic development finance professional certification Program.

Jamie Radel, City of St. Paul

Jamie has been a city planner with the City of Saint Paul for three years. Her current projects include leading the City's efforts to update the Housing Chapter for its Comprehensive Plan and participating in the Rice and Larpenteur interjurisdictional collaboration. Prior to Saint Paul, Jamie worked as a financial analyst for Northland Securities, the economic development coordinator for the City of Roseville, and an assistant planner with Vandewalle & Associates in Madison. Jamie received an M.S. in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
