MAKE BROWNFIELDS GREEN AGAIN: STRATEGIES AND RESOURCES FOR PROMOTING BROWNFIELD REDEVELOPMENT IN COMP PLANNING

MODERATOR – ERIN JERABEK HEELAN

Martha Faust, Minnesota Brownfields

Martha Faust is the Executive Director of Minnesota Brownfields, a non-profit whose mission is to promote efficient clean up and reuse of contaminated land. She directs the organization's day to day programming and overall strategy. Martha previously worked as a Planner for the City of St. Paul, where she developed a comprehensive plan for the Mississippi River corridor, several neighborhood plans, and the City's first digital zoning map. Martha holds a Master's degree in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of Minnesota and a BA in Economics and French from the University of St. Thomas.

Marcus Martin, Metropolitan Council

Marcus Martin is a Senior Planner at the Metropolitan Council. He has helped communities meet their development goals with grants and loans for over 10 years while working with state and regional government. Marcus has a master's degree in urban and regional planning from the University of Minnesota's Humphrey School of Public Affairs and is a board member of Minnesota Brownfields.
