

CONTINUING THE COMP PLAN CONVERSATION – PANEL BIOS

Todd Streeter, Principal, Community Collaboration

For nearly 20 years Todd Streeter has been engaging diverse stakeholders through many leadership roles including: Mayor, Chamber of Commerce Pres./Exe. Director, and Community Foundation Co-Founder, to name a few. Todd's leadership experience has assisted a wide range of community improvement initiatives involving Cities, Counties, multi-governmental agencies, businesses, property owners, nonprofit organizations, residents, and civic interest groups.

Lynda Woulfe, Administrator, City of Cambridge

Lynda Woulfe is the City Administrator for the City of Cambridge, Minnesota. She has served in that capacity since April 2007. Lynda previously worked for the cities of Pine City and Red Wing as well as Goodhue County and the League of Minnesota Cities. Lynda is passionate about creating communities that serve all generations and developing a variety of housing, business, entertainment, and recreation.

Doug Menikheim, Council Member, City of Stillwater

Doug Menikheim is a retired U.S. Navy Captain serving on three combatant ships. Following his naval career, he affiliated with Honeywell, Inc. as the Director of Executive Development for the Aerospace and Defense Business. He has been involved in many leadership development roles and is currently serving his second term as council member for the City of Stillwater. He served on the Stillwater Downtown Revitalization Committee.

Beth Thompson, Community Development Director, New Richmond

Beth Thompson has been with the City of New Richmond, Wisconsin, for over 25 years and currently serves as the Community Development Director. Before entering her current position four years ago, her roles with the City ranged from Administrative Assistant, Customer Service Representative, IT Manager, and Economic Development Director. Beth is an active member of Momentum West and assists with their Marketing efforts and is a member of WEDC and IEDC.

Jane Stevenson, President, St. Croix Valley Foundation

Jane Stevenson is the president of the St. Croix Valley Foundation, a position she has held for 10 years. The St. Croix Valley Foundation serves the watershed of the St. Croix River, which runs between Minnesota and Wisconsin and is comprised of 7,000 square miles. She has been in the community foundation field since 1992, when she worked for the Arizona Community Foundation. Prior to that, she was an Associate Professor in rural economic development at the University of Minnesota in St. Paul, and started her career at the State Planning Agency for the State of Minnesota. She has an MA in public policy from Syracuse University. She lives in Woodbury.

