METRO HRA SECTION 8 HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM

BRIEFING PACKET INDEX
INTRODUCTION

Section 8 Rent Assistance is a program that enables low-income families to obtain housing by subsidizing a portion of each family’s monthly rent. Current verification of your income, assets, and expenses (child care/medical) is used to complete a preliminary calculation to determine your eligibility.

If you are a person with a disability that requires a reasonable accommodation you must submit the request in writing to the HRA.

If determined eligible, you will be issued a Housing Choice Voucher to locate suitable housing. In order for a unit to qualify, it must fit within the Section 8 guidelines for location, be within the limits for the program and pass a housing quality inspection.

Consider all of the following when you are looking for a unit:

☐ LOCATION

If your Voucher states that you are ELIGIBLE to transfer, you may lease up anywhere in the U.S. where there is Housing Authority to administer your assistance.

If your Voucher states that you are NOT ELIGIBLE to transfer, you are required to lease up in a Metro HRA community for the first twelve months of Section 8 Rent Assistance.

☐ VOUCHER

The initial term of a voucher is 120 days. The family must submit a Request for Tenancy Approval within the 120 day period unless Metro HRA grants an extension.

☐ EXTENSIONS

The PHA will approve additional extension only in the following circumstances:

- It is necessary as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities.
- Other extenuating circumstances, documented, reviewed and approved by the PHA.
- The PHA will decide whether to approve or deny an extension request.
- The extension will be for one 60-day extension.

☐ PAYMENT STANDARDS

Payment standards are used to determine the maximum subsidy amount that you can receive and the maximum gross rent limit for an eligible unit.

☐ INSPECTION

1. Housing Choice Voucher Program
A. The public housing agency (PHA) has determined that the above named family (item 5) is eligible to participate in the housing choice voucher program. Under this program, the family chooses a decent, safe and sanitary unit to live in. If the owner agrees to lease the unit to the family under the housing choice voucher program, and if the PHA approves the unit, the PHA will enter into a housing assistance payments (HAP) contract with the owner to make monthly payments to the owner to help the family pay the rent.

B. The PHA determines the amount of the monthly housing assistance payment to be paid to the owner. Generally, the monthly housing assistance payment by the PHA is the difference between the applicable payment standard and 30 percent of monthly adjusted family income. In determining the maximum initial housing assistance payment for the family, the PHA will use the payment standard in effect on the date the tenancy is approved by the PHA. The family may choose to rent a unit for more than the payment standard, but this choice does not change the amount of the PHA's assistance payment. The actual amount of the PHA’s assistance payment will be determined using the gross rent for the unit selected by the family.

2. Voucher
A. When issuing this voucher the PHA expects that if the family finds an approvable unit, the PHA will have the money available to enter into a HAP contract with the owner. However, the PHA is under no obligation to the family, to any owner, or to any other person, to approve a tenancy. The PHA does not have any liability to any party by the issuance of this voucher.

B. The voucher does not give the family any right to participate in the PHA's housing choice voucher program. The family becomes a participant in the PHA’s housing choice voucher program when the HAP contract between the PHA and the owner takes effect.

C. During the initial or any extended term of this voucher, the PHA may require the family to report progress in leasing a unit at such intervals and times as determined by the PHA.

3. PHA Approval or Disapproval of Unit or Lease
A. When the family finds a suitable unit where the owner is willing to participate in the program, the family must give the PHA the request for tenancy approval (on the form supplied by the PHA), signed by the owner and the family, and a copy of the lease, including the HUD-prescribed tenancy addendum. Note: Both documents must be given to the PHA no later than the expiration date stated in item 3 or 4 on top of page one of this voucher.

B. The family must submit these documents in the manner that is required by the PHA. PHA policy may prohibit the family from submitting more than one request for tenancy approval at a time.

C. The lease must include, word-for-word, all provisions of the tenancy addendum required by HUD and supplied by the PHA. This is done by adding the HUD tenancy addendum to the lease used by the owner. If there is a difference between any provisions of the HUD tenancy addendum and any provisions of the owner's lease, the provisions of the HUD tenancy addendum shall control.

D. After receiving the request for tenancy approval and a copy of the lease, the PHA will inspect the unit. The PHA may not give approval for the family to lease the unit or execute the HAP contract until the PHA has determined that all the following program requirements are met: the unit is eligible; the unit has been inspected by the PHA and passes the housing quality standards (HQS); the rent is reasonable; and the landlord and tenant have executed the lease including the HUD-prescribed tenancy addendum. E. If the PHA approves the unit, the PHA will notify the family and the owner, and will furnish two copies of the HAP contract to the owner.

11. Give the PHA a copy of any owner eviction notice.

1. The owner and the family must execute the lease.
2. The owner must sign both copies of the HAP contract and must furnish to the PHA a copy of the executed lease and both copies of the executed HAP contract.
3. The PHA will execute the HAP contract and return an executed copy to the owner.
4. If the PHA determines that the unit or lease cannot be approved for any reason, the PHA will notify the owner and the family that:
   1. The proposed unit or lease is disapproved for specified reasons, and
   2. If the conditions requiring disapproval are remedied to the satisfaction of the PHA on or before the date specified by the PHA, the unit or lease will be approved.

4. Obligations of the Family

A. When the family’s unit is approved and the HAP contract is executed, the family must follow the rules listed below in order to continue participating in the housing choice voucher program.
B. The family must:
   1. Supply any information that the PHA or HUD determines to be necessary including evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status, and information for use in a regularly scheduled reexamination or interim reexamination of family income and composition.
   2. Disclose and verify social security numbers and sign and submit consent forms for obtaining information.
   3. Supply any information requested by the PHA to verify that the family is living in the unit or information related to family absence from the unit.
   4. Promptly notify the PHA in writing when the family is away from the unit for an extended period of time in accordance with PHA policies.
   5. Allow the PHA to inspect the unit at reasonable times and after reasonable notice.
   6. Notify the PHA and the owner in writing before moving out of the unit or terminating the lease.
   7. Use the assisted unit for residence by the family. The unit must be the family’s only residence.
   8. Promptly notify the PHA in writing of the birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody of a child.
   9. Request PHA written approval to add any other family member as an occupant of the unit.
   10. Promptly notify the PHA in writing if any family member no longer lives in the unit.

12. Pay utility bills and provide and maintain any appliances that the owner is not required to provide under the lease.
C. Any information the family supplies must be true and complete.
D. The family (including each family member) must not:
   1. Own or have any interest in the unit (other than in a cooperative, or the owner of a manufactured home leasing a manufactured home space).
   2. Commit any serious or repeated violation of the lease.
   3. Commit fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with the program.
   4. Engage in drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity or other criminal activity that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of other residents and persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
   5. Sublease or let the unit or assign the lease or transfer the unit.
   6. Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while receiving another housing subsidy, for the same unit or a different unit under any other Federal, State or local housing assistance program.
   7. Use the unit for activities including the manufacture or sale of any illegal drug, the use of any drug prescribed in a manner not consistent with the directions set forth by the prescriber, the cultivation of marijuana, the sale of any illicit drug (including marijuana); or unlawful activities.
   8. Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while residing in a unit owned by a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother of any member of the family, unless the PHA has determined (and has notified the owner and the family of such determination) that approving rental of the unit, notwithstanding such relationship, would provide reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities.
   9. Engage in abuse of alcohol in a way that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the other residents and persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.

5. Illegal Discrimination

If the family has reason to believe that, in its search for suitable housing, it has been discriminated against on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, disability, national origin, or familial status, the family may file a housing discrimination complaint with any HUD Field Office in person, by mail, or by telephone. The PHA will give the family information on how to fill out and file a complaint.

6. Expiration and Extension of Voucher

The voucher will expire on the date stated in item 3 on the top of page one of this voucher unless the family requests an extension in writing and the PHA grants a written extension of the voucher in which case the voucher will expire on the date stated in item 4. At its discretion, the PHA may grant a family’s request for one or more extensions of the initial term.
Typically, the minimum amount you will pay for rent is 30% of your monthly income after certain deductions and allowances.

The maximum amount that you are allowed to pay toward your rent is 40% of your monthly income after certain deductions and allowances.

The HRA will calculate this after verifying the information on your application.

Your Metro HRA Representative will compute your household income and monthly adjusted income, giving you credit for any allowances or deductions for which you are entitled for dependents, medical expenses (elderly, handicapped, or disabled households only), or expenses for the care of dependents, as follows:

1. $480.00 for each dependent (all those 17 and under and all those 18 and over except head of household or spouse, who are full time students, handicapped or disabled).

2. Expenses for childcare while you are employed or attending school, providing:
   a) There is no adult household member capable of providing the childcare during the hours the care is needed.
   b) The amount is reasonable for the hours and type of care provided.
   c) The amount of the childcare does not exceed the amount of the income.
   d) The amount is not paid by an agency or an individual outside the household.

Request for Reasonable Accommodation

A. Right to Reasonable Accommodation

A reasonable accommodation is a change, or adjustment to a housing program, service or dwelling unit that allows a qualified person with a disability to have equal access to Metro HRA Programs in order to: (1) participate fully in the Metro HRA's housing programs; (2) take advantage of services offered by Metro HRA; or (3) live in a dwelling unit. You may request a reasonable accommodation at any time you find it necessary.

You must demonstrate that there is a relationship between the requested accommodation and your disability to show that a reasonable accommodation is necessary.

The Metro HRA has attached forms to help make a written request. If you are unable to complete the form and wish to make your request orally, or need assistance with a written request, please contact your Coordinator or Community Representative and they will assist you.

B. Accommodations Metro HRA Can Make

The following list contains some of the most common types of requests made by applicants or participants in the Housing Choice Voucher program.

- Offer an additional voucher extension of "shopping time" allowed for you to locate rental housing.

- Offer an increase in the payment standard, not to exceed 120 percent of the fair market rent or to the utility allowance, if necessary to enable a family to select a unit that accommodates a permanent disability.

- Consider a request for an increase in the subsidy standard used to determine the voucher size your family receives. The need for an additional bedroom is limited to families who require a live-in aide; have large-size, doctor prescribed medical apparatus directly related to a disability which requires additional space; or where an additional bedroom is necessary due to specific disabilities of a family member(s) related needs.

C. Accommodations Metro HRA Cannot Make

Modifications that Result in an Undue Financial or Administrative Burden: Metro HRA cannot provide an accommodation if it results in an undue financial or administrative burden or a fundamental alteration in the way Metro HRA administers its housing programs which alters the essential nature of the HRA operations.
Alterations or Modifications to a Private Rental Unit or Landlord Practice: Applicants or participants in the Housing Choice Voucher program who require a physical alteration to a privately owned rental unit MUST direct their request to the landlord. Metro HRA cannot make, or force a landlord to make an accommodation to a privately owned rental unit. The Fair Housing Law applies to all housing; however, in private leased housing the cost of any physical modification to the unit is typically the tenant’s responsibility.

D. Approval/Denial of a Requested Accommodation

The Metro HRA will respond to requests for reasonable accommodation within a reasonable amount of time. If Metro HRA denies a request for an accommodation, the Metro HRA will discuss with the family whether an alternative accommodation could effectively address the family’s disability related needs. The Metro HRA may contact the requestor if additional information is needed to negotiate an alternative accommodation.

E. Requesting a Reasonable Accommodation

If you feel you need a reasonable accommodation, please contact your HRA Coordinator to fill out the required forms to enable the HRA to contact a Medical Professional(s) to verify your circumstances.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless that collection displays a valid OMB control number. Eligible families submit this information to the Public Housing Authority (PHA) when applying for housing assistance under Section 8 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f). The PHA uses the information to determine if the family is eligible, if the unit is eligible, and if the lease complies with program and statutory requirements. Responses are required to obtain a benefit from the Federal Government. The information requested does not lend itself to confidentiality.
Part C of HAP Contract: Tenancy Addendum

1. Section 8 Voucher Program
   a. The owner is leasing the contract unit to the tenant for occupancy by the tenant’s family with assistance for a tenancy under the Section 8 housing choice voucher program (voucher program) of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
   b. The owner has entered into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract (HAP contract) with the PHA under the voucher program. Under the HAP contract, the PHA will make housing assistance payments to the owner to assist the tenant in leasing the unit from the owner.

2. Lease
   a. The owner has given the PHA a copy of the lease, including any revisions agreed by the owner and the tenant. The owner certifies that the terms of the lease are in accordance with all provisions of the HAP contract and that the lease includes the tenancy addendum.
   b. The tenant shall have the right to enforce the tenancy addendum against the owner. If there is any conflict between the tenancy addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the language of the tenancy addendum shall control.

3. Use of Contract Unit
   a. During the lease term, the family will reside in the contract unit with assistance under the voucher program.
   b. The composition of the household must be approved by the PHA. The family must promptly inform the PHA of the birth, adoption or court-ordered custody of a child. Other persons may not be added to the household without prior written approval of the owner and the PHA.
   c. The contract unit may only be used for residence by the PHA-approved household members. The unit must be the family’s only residence. Members of the household may engage in legal profit making activities incidental to primary use of the unit for residence by members of the family.
   d. The tenant may not sublease or let the unit.
   e. The tenant may not assign the lease or transfer the unit.

4. Rent to Owner
   a. The initial rent to owner may not exceed the amount approved by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements.
   b. Changes in the rent to owner shall be determined by the provisions of the lease. However, the owner may not raise the rent during the initial term of the lease.

5. Family Payment to Owner
   a. The family is responsible for paying the owner any portion of the rent to owner that is not covered by the PHA housing assistance payment.
   b. Each month, the PHA will make a housing assistance payment to the owner on behalf of the family in accordance with the HAP contract. The amount of the monthly housing assistance payment will be determined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements for a tenancy under the Section 8 voucher program.
   c. The monthly housing assistance payment shall be credited against the monthly rent to owner for the contract unit.
   d. The tenant is not responsible for paying the portion of rent to owner covered by the PHA housing assistance payment under the HAP contract between the owner and the PHA. A PHA failure to pay the housing assistance payment to the owner is not a violation of the lease. The owner may not terminate the tenancy for nonpayment of the PHA housing assistance payment.
   e. The owner may not charge or accept, from the family or from any other source, any payment for rent of the unit in addition to the rent to owner. Rent to owner includes all housing services, maintenance, utilities and appliances to be provided and paid by the owner in accordance with the lease.
   f. The owner must immediately return any excess rent payment to the tenant.

6. Other Fees and Charges
   a. Rent to owner does not include cost of any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner.
   b. The owner may not require the tenant or family members to pay charges for any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner. Nonpayment of any such charges is not grounds for termination of tenancy.
   c. The owner may not charge the tenant extra amounts for items customarily included in rent to owner in the locality, or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized tenants in the premises.

7. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services
   a. Maintenance

Tenancy Addendum

(2) Maintenance and replacement (including redecoration) must be in accordance with the standard practice for the building concerned as established by the owner.

b. Utilities and appliances
(1) The owner must provide all utilities needed to comply with the HQS.

(2) The owner is not responsible for a breach of the HQS caused by the tenant’s failure to:
   (a) Pay for any utilities that are to be paid by the tenant.
   (b) Provide and maintain any appliances that are to be provided by the tenant.

c. Family damage. The owner is not responsible for a breach of the HQS because of damages beyond normal wear and tear caused by any member of the household or by a guest.

d. Housing services. The owner must provide all housing services as agreed to in the lease.

8. Termination of Tenancy by Owner

a. Requirements. The owner may only terminate the tenancy in accordance with the lease and HUD requirements.

b. Grounds. During the term of the lease (the initial term of the lease or any extension term), the owner may only terminate the tenancy because of:
   (1) Serious or repeated violation of the lease;
   (2) Violation of Federal, State, or local law that imposes obligations on the tenant in connection with the occupancy or use of the unit and the premises;
   (3) Criminal activity or alcohol abuse (as provided in paragraph c); or
   (4) Other good cause (as provided in paragraph d).

c. Criminal activity or alcohol abuse.
   (1) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household, a guest or another person under a resident’s control commits any of the following types of criminal activity:
      (a) Any criminal activity that threatens the health or safety of, or the right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by, other residents (including property management staff residing on the premises);
      (b) Any criminal activity that threatens the health or safety of, or the right to peaceful enjoyment of their residences by, persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises;
      (c) Any violent criminal activity on or near the premises; or
      (d) Any drug-related criminal activity on or near the premises.

(2) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household is:
   (a) Fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, for a crime, or attempt to commit a crime, that is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or that, in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor; or
   (b) Violating a condition of probation or parole under Federal or State law.

(3) The owner may terminate the tenancy for criminal activity by a household member in accordance with this section if the owner determines that the household member has committed the criminal activity, regardless of whether the household member has been arrested or convicted for such activity.

(4) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household has engaged in abuse of alcohol that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

d. Other good cause for termination of tenancy
   (1) During the initial lease term, other good cause for termination of tenancy must be something the family did or failed to do.
   (2) During the initial lease term or during any extension term, other good cause may include:
      (a) Disturbance of neighbors,
      (b) Destruction of property, or
      (c) Living or housekeeping habits that cause damage to the unit or premises.
   (3) After the initial lease term, such good cause may include:
      (a) The tenant’s failure to accept the owner’s offer of a new lease or revision;
      (b) The owner’s desire to use the unit for personal or family use or for a purpose other than use as a residential rental unit; or
      (c) A business or economic reason for termination of the tenancy (such as sale of the property, renovation of the unit, the owner’s desire to rent the unit for a higher rent).
   (4) The examples of other good cause in this paragraph do not preempt any State or local laws to the contrary.
   (5) In the case of an owner who is an immediate successor in interest pursuant to foreclosure during the term of the lease, requiring the tenant to vacate the property prior to sale shall not constitute other good cause, except that the owner may terminate the tenancy effective on the date of transfer of the unit to the owner if the owner: (a) will occupy the unit as a primary residence; and (b) has provided the tenant a notice to vacate at least 90 days before the effective date of such notice. This provision shall not affect any State or local law that provides for longer time periods or addition protections for tenants. This provision will sunset on December 31, 2012 unless extended by law.

e. Protections for Victims of Abuse.

(1) An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other "good cause" for termination of the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of such a victim.

(2) Criminal activity directly relating to abuse, engaged in by a member of a tenant’s household or any guest or other person under the tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant’s family is the victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

(3) Notwithstanding any restrictions on admission, occupancy, or terminations of occupancy or assistance, or any Federal, State or local law to the contrary, a PHA, owner or manager may "bifurcate" a lease, or otherwise remove a household member from a lease, without regard to whether a household member is a signatory to the lease, in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others. This action may be taken without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of the violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant. Such eviction, removal, termination of occupancy rights, or termination of assistance shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by Federal, State, and local law for the termination of leases or assistance under the housing choice voucher program.

(4) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of a public housing agency, owner, or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

(5) Nothing in this section limits any otherwise available authority of an owner or manager to evict or the public housing agency to terminate assistance to a tenant for any violation of a lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant’s household, provided that the owner, manager, or public housing agency does not subject an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate.

(6) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of an owner or manager to evict, or the public housing agency to terminate assistance, to any tenant if the owner, manager, or public housing agency can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if the tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede any provision of any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection than this section for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

f. Eviction by court action. The owner may only evict the tenant by a court action.

9. Lease: Relation to HAP Contract
If the HAP contract terminates for any reason, the lease terminates automatically.

10. PHA Termination of Assistance
The PHA may terminate program assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with HUD requirements. If the PHA terminates program assistance for the family, the lease terminates automatically.

11. Family Move Out
The tenant must notify the PHA and the owner before the family moves out of the unit.

12. Security Deposit
a. The owner may collect a security deposit from the tenant. (However, the PHA may prohibit the owner from collecting a security deposit in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted tenants. Any such PHA-required restriction must be specified in the HAP contract.)

b. When the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, any damages to the unit or any other amounts that the tenant owes under the lease.
c. The owner must give the tenant a list of all items charged against the security deposit, and the amount of each item. After deducting the amount, if any, used to reimburse the owner, the owner must promptly refund the full amount of the unused balance to the tenant.

d. If the security deposit is not sufficient to cover amounts the tenant owes under the lease, the owner may collect the balance from the tenant.

13. Prohibition of Discrimination

In accordance with applicable equal opportunity statutes, Executive Orders, and regulations, the owner must not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status or disability in connection with the lease.

14. Conflict with Other Provisions of Lease

a. The terms of the tenancy addendum are prescribed by HUD in accordance with Federal law and regulation, as a condition for Federal assistance to the tenant and tenant’s family under the Section 8 voucher program.

b. In case of any conflict between the provisions of the tenancy addendum as required by HUD, and any other provisions of the lease or any other agreement between the owner and the tenant, the requirements of the HUD-required tenancy addendum shall control.

15. Changes in Lease or Rent

a. The tenant and the owner may not make any change in the tenancy addendum. However, if the tenant and the owner agree to any other changes in the lease, such changes must be in writing, and the owner must immediately give the PHA a copy of such changes. The lease, including any changes, must be in accordance with the requirements of the tenancy addendum.

b. In the following cases, tenant-based assistance shall not be continued unless the PHA has approved a new tenancy in accordance with program requirements and has executed a new HAP contract with the owner:

   (1) If there are any changes in lease requirements governing tenant or owner responsibilities for utilities or appliances;

   (2) If there are any changes in lease provisions governing the term of the lease;

   (3) If the family moves to a new unit, even if the unit is in the same building or complex.

c. PHA approval of the tenancy, and execution of a new HAP contract, are not required for agreed changes in the lease other than as specified in paragraph b.

d. The owner must notify the PHA of any changes in the amount of the rent to owner at least sixty days before any such changes go into effect, and the amount of the rent to owner following any such agreed change may not exceed the reasonable rent for the unit as most recently determined or redetermined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements.

16. Notices

Any notice under the lease by the tenant to the owner or by the owner to the tenant must be in writing.

17. Definitions

- Contract unit. The housing unit rented by the tenant with assistance under the program.

INFORMATION FOR RENTAL PROPERTY OWNERS
ON THE SECTION 8 HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM

Section 8 is a federal housing program funded through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Currently, over 5,000 families in Anoka, Carver, and suburban Hennepin and Ramsey Counties are receiving assistance each month with their rent payments through the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program administered by the Metro Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA).

The following information describes the Section 8 program as a three-way partnership between the Metro HRA, property owner and tenant. The success of the program at Metro HRA, is due to the willingness and cooperation of more than 2,000 property owners and managers. Without this participation, the program would not exist.

METRO HRA

- Maintains a waiting list of program applicants
- Determines household’s eligibility and assistance level
- Issues Voucher to family
- Supplies family with Request for Tenancy Approval form (RTA) which the tenant provides
- Approves rent and tenancy
- Performs Housing Quality Standards inspection
- Prepares contract and sends to owner
- Issues housing assistance payments to owners

OWNER

- Shows available unit
- Screens prospective tenant
- Approves tenant
- Completes RTA form
- Provides proposed lease
- Signs and returns contract
- Complies with housing quality standards
- Enforces terms of lease

TENANT

- Contacts owner for unit
- Expresses interest in renting unit
- Completes RTA form with owner (Returns RTA to the Metro HRA by the 15th of the month before assistance is to begin)
- Abides by lease terms and program policies

If you are interested in more information go to http://www.metrocouncil.org/housing/HRA/OwnerHandbook.pdf or please contact the Metro HRA to request an Owner Handbook, we would be happy to mail one to you. This handbook is designed to provide rental property owners, managers and caretakers with information needed to successfully participate in the Section 8 Rental Assistance Program.

The HRA strives to provide property owners and managers with the information necessary to ensure satisfying participation in the Section 8 Program. The HRA invites feedback from property owners that will help us to continue to improve our service. If you have specific questions or would like more detailed information regarding the Section 8 program feel to contact us at 651-602-1428.

PORTABILITY FACT SHEET

One of the greatest features of the Housing Choice Voucher Program is that your assistance can “move” with you. You may be able to use your assistance to move anywhere in the United States to an area that administers the Housing Choice Voucher Program. The term used for a move to an area outside of where you received your voucher is called Portability.

Attached on page 24-29 is a list of the Metro Area and Greater Minnesota area housing authorities that administer the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. Each agency has their own rules/policies that they have developed through the guidance of the federal regulations for the program. When you move or “port out” of the Metro HRA area of service, the rules of the agency that services the community you move to will apply.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT PORTABILITY

Initial Housing Authority – the housing authority that you received your voucher from.

Receiving Housing Authority – the housing authority in the area you are moving or “porting” to. The Receiving Housing Authority will have the option to:

- absorb you into their program by giving you one of their vouchers; or
- bill Metro HRA for administering your voucher and paying your subsidy after you move.

The Portability process MAY cause delays in the start of your rental assistance in your new unit.

If you are a new voucher holder your Voucher will have a label indicating if you are eligible to use the portability feature. To be eligible to move outside of the area that Metro HRA serves you must have resided within Metro HRA’s area of service when you applied for theMetro HRA Section 8 waiting list. If you did not, a request for a portability move may be denied. Also, if you are a new voucher holder porting with the initial use of your voucher you must be within the income eligibility guidelines for the area you are moving into or your portability move will be denied by the Receiving Housing Authority.

If you are a current participant, a proper notice to vacate must be given to your current landlord and to your Metro HRA Coordinator or Community Representative. Metro HRA will review your continued eligibility for Section 8 and determine if you are eligible for portability.

You must be in good standing with the HRA. Any debts owed to Metro HRA or another housing authority must be current prior to being approved to move.

The Metro HRA MUST contact and forward the necessary paperwork to the receiving Housing Authority in the area that you wish to move to. When Metro HRA forwards your paperwork to the Receiving Housing Authority they will contact you to schedule an appointment to be briefed on their Section 8 program rules.

The Receiving Housing Authority will determine the final approval of the Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) form completed by both you and the landlord. They will conduct the inspection, process a rent determination and complete the necessary paperwork for your Portability move.

The Receiving Housing Authority's Payment Standards and voucher bedroom size rules will apply.

The Receiving Housing Authority must approve the unit you select and the unit must pass a housing quality standards inspection. If you move into the unit prior to final approval from the Receiving Housing Authority you may be held responsible for the full contract rent for the unit.

When your move is completed, the staff at the Receiving Housing Authority will be your contact for future questions and information about your rent assistance.
Please ask yourself this question:

Where did I live when I applied for the Metro HRA Section 8 waiting list?

If you lived in any of the communities listed below, you are eligible to use your voucher anywhere in the nation.

If you did not live in one of these communities listed below when you applied for the Metro HRA waiting list you will be required to move to one of the cities listed on the next page in order to initially use your voucher.

Please note: Persons with a disability may request, as a reasonable accommodation, a waiver to the above information. The Metro HRA will grant waivers only as a reasonable accommodation for persons with a disability who are able to verify to the HRA the reasons for their inability to move to the cities covered by the Metro HRA.

What is portability?
Portability refers to moving to a different area with your Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher. If you are thinking of moving to a different area, first contact your current housing authority. Ask them if you are eligible to move, or "port" as they call it. If you are able to move to a different area with your voucher, you will need to contact the housing authority that covers the area you are moving to. You will also need to turn paperwork into that housing authority by a specific date.

SECURITY DEPOSIT

The regulations of the Section 8 Rent Assistance Program state, “the amount a family pays for a Security Deposit is based on the owner’s policy”. The owner may collect the same deposit from you as unassisted tenants.

The owner may not collect a security deposit from a family in excess of private market practice.

The Housing Authority cannot pay or assist with payments toward security deposits.

TIP:

Although Metro HRA does not offer assistance with paying the Security Deposit, you may be eligible for assistance through other agencies such as:

- Anoka County Community Action Program/Lutheran Social Services
  - Anoka County (763) 783-4747
  - Carver County (952) 496-2125

SIDE PAYMENT POLICY

When discussing the rent with you, an owner/manager may ask for extra payments that are separate from the rent.

These extra, or “side payments”, can be for such items as a garage, cable TV service, storage locker, washer and dryer or pet deposit.

Side payments must be voluntary and the same cost for all tenants. You cannot be forced to pay for an extra service if you do not want it.

Metro HRA must approve all side payments before processing the lease. Metro HRA also requires that you list the side payment on the lease or sign a separate agreement with the landlord.

Check with your Community Representative or Coordinator to determine whether or not the side payment can be approved or if you have any further questions regarding side payments.

Side payments cannot be made for rent.
FINDING A PLACE TO LIVE

HOW TO FIND A RENTAL UNIT

- Housing Information & Referral Service www.housinglink.org HousingLink provides vacancy information as well as training and support to housing service agencies.
- Newspapers
  Check the classified section of local newspapers under “Houses for Rent or Lease” and “Apartments for Rent or Lease”. The Sunday newspapers have the largest listing, however, most suburban communities have a local paper with listings as well.
- Bulletin Boards
  Check laundromats, supermarkets, credit unions, etc.
- People
  Check with friends, family or neighbors.
- Yard/Window Signs
  Look for “For Rent” signs in yards and windows.
- Rental Agencies/Real Estate Offices
  Note: You may be required to pay a fee and payment of a fee is not a guarantee that you will find satisfactory housing.
  - Apartment Search (612) 870-0525
  - First Call for Help (651) 291-0211 or “211”
  - Renter’s Choice (651) 636-3860

TIPS

- Put your best foot forward and make a good first impression.
- When you contact property owners, call from a quiet room and away from any distractions.
- Leave clear messages.
- Look everyday – constantly.
- The amount of effort you put forth will determine the outcome of your search.
- You may wish to keep track of units that accept Section 8 for future availability.
- It is the owner’s choice whether or not to accept Section 8.
- Your credit history is important. If you are unsure of your credit report, there are resources available to assist you. For more information, call Consumer Credit Counseling Service at (612) 617-1778 or 1(800) 511-9204.

QUESTIONS TO ASK PROSPECTIVE OWNERS/MANAGERS

1. How many bedrooms are in the unit?
2. How much is the rent?
3. How much is the security deposit?
4. What, if any, utilities are included in the rent? Does the owner/manager supply garbage service and water?
5. Are there any special restrictions - such as no pets?
6. What is the initial term of the lease- 12 month, 6 month or month-to-month?

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT

If the housing might be what you are looking for, ask for an appointment to see it. Be sure to keep the appointment and be on time. You may want to arrive early to look around the neighborhood. Do not take a lot of friends or children with you to look at the unit. You want to give your full attention to discuss the rental unit and to present yourself at your very best.

NEGOTIATING THE LEASE

When you find a unit, you are responsible for verifying that the rent and utilities fall within the Maximum Gross Rent Limit. If necessary, you may negotiate the rent amount with the owner/manager.
HOUSING QUALITY STANDARDS
INSPECTION

The purpose of the inspection is to certify that the unit meets HUD’s Housing Quality Standards (HQS) regarding decent, safe and sanitary housing.

All units must pass inspection before Section 8 Rent Assistance can begin.

Most common causes of failed inspections:
- Missing or broken outlet covers
- Exposed electrical wires
- Missing, loose or non-working smoke detectors
- Cracked or broken windows
- Missing or broken window locks
- Closet doors off track
- Missing or broken stairway railings
- Peeling paint (if you have children under the age of 6)
- Loose carpet or flooring edges
- Loose or deteriorated refrigerator door gaskets
- Non-working ovens or burners
- Plumbing leaks or running faucets
- Loose toilets

TIPS
- You may wish to share this information and discuss any items of concern with the owner/manager before the inspection takes place and make sure that all repairs have been made.
- If you are already living in the unit, when you receive notice that an inspection has been scheduled, make sure that the inspectors have clear access to windows, doorways, closets, outlet covers and pipes under sinks. This may involve moving furniture or other household items and cleaning the unit.

Refer to the section entitled A Good Place to Live for more information regarding the inspection.
A Good Place to Live!
Introduction

Having a good place to live is important. Through your Public Housing Agency (or PHA) the Section 8 Certificate Program and the Housing Voucher Program help you to rent a good place. You are free to choose any house or apartment you like, as long as it meets certain requirements for quality. Under the Section 8 Certificate Program, the housing cannot cost more than the Fair Market Rent. However, under the Housing Voucher Program, a family may choose to rent an expensive house or apartment and pay the extra amount. Your PHA will give you other information about both programs and the way your part of the rent is determined.

Housing Quality Standards

Housing quality standards help to insure that your home will be safe, healthy, and comfortable. In the Section 8 Certificate Program and the Housing Voucher Program there are two kinds of housing quality standards. Things that a home must have in order approved by the PHA, and Additional things that you should think about for the special needs of your own family. These are items that you can decide.

The Section 8 Certificate Program and Housing Voucher Program

The Section 8 Certificate Program and Housing Voucher Program allow you to choose a house or apartment that you like. It may be where you are living now or somewhere else. The must have standards are very basic items that every apartment must have. But a home that has all of the must have standards may still not have everything you need or would like. With the help of Section 8 Certificate Program or Housing Voucher Program, you should be able to afford a good home, so you should think about what you would like your home to have. You may want a big kitchen or a lot of windows or a first floor apartment. Worn wallpaper or paint may bother you. Think of these things as you are looking for a home. Please take the time to read A Good Place to Live. If you would like to stay in your present home, use this booklet to see if your home meets the housing quality standards. If you want to move, use it each time you go to look for a new house or apartment, and good luck in finding your good place to live.

Read each section carefully. After you find a place to live, you can start the Request for Lease Approval process. You may find a place you like that has some problems with it. Check with your PHA about what to do, since it may be possible to correct the problems.

The Requirements

Every house or apartment must have at least a living room, kitchen, and bathroom. A one-room efficiency apartment with a kitchen area is all right. Other rooms that are not lived in may be: a utility room for washer and dryer, basement or porch. These must be checked for security and electrical hazards and other possible dangers (such as walls or ceilings in danger of falling), since these items are important for the safety of your entire apartment. You should also look for other possible dangers such as large holes in the walls, floors, or ceilings, and unsafe stairways. Make sure to look for these things in all other rooms not lived in.

- Evidence of flooding

Garbage
No large piles of trash and garbage inside or outside the unit, or in common areas such as hallways. There must be a space to store garbage (until pickup) that is covered tightly so that rats and other animals cannot get into it. Trash should be picked up regularly.

Lights
Lights that work in all common hallways and interior stairs.

Stairs and Hallways
Interior stairs with railings, and common hallways that are safe and in good condition. Minimal cracking, peeling or chipping in these areas.
Pollution
No serious air pollution, such as exhaust fumes or sewer gas.

Rodents and Vermin
No sign of rats or large numbers of mice or vermin (like roaches).

For Manufactured Homes: Tie Downs
Manufactured homes must be placed on the site in a stable manner and be free from hazards such as sliding or wind damage.

You should also think about:

- The type of fire exit.
  -- Is it suitable for your family?

- How safe the house or apartment is for your family.

- The presence of screens and storm windows.

- Services in the neighborhood.
  -- Are there stores nearby?
  -- Are there schools nearby?
  -- Are there hospitals nearby?
  -- Is there transportation nearby?

- Are there job opportunities nearby?

- Will the cost of tenant-paid utilities be affordable and is the unit energy-efficient?

- Be sure to read the lead-based paint brochure given to you by the PHA or owner, especially if the housing or apartment is older (built before 1978).
Note: You may not be able to check these items listed here yourself, but the PHA inspector will check them for you when the unit is inspected.
Now that you have finished this booklet, you know that for a house or apartment to be a good place to live, it must meet two kinds of housing quality standards:

- Things it must have in order to be approved for the Section 8 Rental Certificate Program and the Rental Voucher Program.
- Additional things that you should think about for the special needs of your family.

You know that these standards apply in six areas of a house or apartment.

1. Living Room
2. Kitchen
3. Bathroom
4. Other Rooms
5. Building Exterior, Plumbing and Heating
6. Health and Safety

You know that when a house or apartment meets the housing quality standards, it will be safe, healthy, and comfortable home for your family. It will be a good place to live.

After you find a good place to live, you can begin the Request for Lease Approval process. When both you and the owner have signed the Request for Lease Approval and the PHA has received it, an official inspection will take place. The PHA will inform both you and the owner of the inspection results.

If the house or apartment passed, a lease can be signed. There may still be some items that you or the PHA would like improved. If so, you and your PHA may be able to bargain for the improvements when you sign the lease. If the owner is not willing to do the work, perhaps you can get him or her to pay for the materials and do it yourself.

If the house or apartment fails, you and/or your PHA may try to convince the owner to make the repairs so it will pass. The likelihood of the owner making the repairs may depend on how serious or costly they are.

If it fails, all repairs must be made, and the house or apartment must be re-inspected before any lease is signed. If the owner cannot or will not repair the house or apartment, even if the repairs are minor, you must look for another home. Make sure you understand why the house or apartment failed, so that you will be more successful in your next search.
Responsibilities of the Public Housing Authority:

- Ensure that all units in the Section 8 Certificate Program and the Housing Voucher Program meet the housing quality standards.

- Inspect unit in response to Request for Lease Approval. Inform potential tenant and owner of results and necessary actions.

- Encourage tenants and owners to maintain units up to standards.

- Make inspection in response to tenant or owner complaint or request. Inform the tenant and owner of the results, necessary actions, and time period for compliance.

- Make annual inspection of the unit to ensure that it still meets the housing quality standards. Inform the tenant and owner of the results, necessary actions, and time period for compliance.

Responsibilities of the tenant:

- Live up to the terms of your lease.

- Do your part to keep the unit safe and sanitary.

- Cooperate with the owner by informing him or her of any necessary repairs.

- Cooperate with the PHA for initial, annual, and complaint inspections.

Responsibilities of the owner:

- Comply with the terms of the lease.

- Generally maintain the unit and keep it up to the housing quality standards outlined in this booklet.

- Cooperate with the tenant by responding promptly to requests for needed repairs.

- Cooperate with the PHA on initial, annual, and complaint inspections, including making necessary repairs.
Continued participation in the Housing Choice Voucher and other rent assistance programs is dependent on following the Statement of Responsibilities. Participants are responsible for the conduct of their guests.

Cooperation
I understand I am required to cooperate in supplying all information requested in the timeframe required by the HRA to determine my eligibility and amount of rent assistance. Cooperation includes attending pre-scheduled appointments, completing, signing and returning needed forms, disclosing and verifying the Social Security Numbers for all family members, cooperating with the inspection process and providing evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status for all family members.

Giving True and Complete Information
I certify that the information given to the Metro HRA on my household members, income, assets and allowances is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Reporting Household Members
I understand and certify that:

- The people I have listed on my information sheet are the only people that live or stay in my home.
- I must notify the HRA within 30 days, in writing, if anyone moves in or out of my home (including any birth, adoption, court awarded custody, Delegation of Parental Authority or marriage).
- I must provide the HRA a copy of written approval from my landlord for all household members added to my lease.
- New adult household members must be approved by the HRA.
- Metro HRA may increase my voucher size only when household members are added by birth, adoption, court-awarded custody, Delegation of Parental Authority or marriage. If members are added for other reasons they must live in my home for at least 12 months before the HRA may change my voucher size.

Definitions:
- Household member – a person who cannot verify a permanent address elsewhere and lives or stays in my home more than 30 days.
- Guest – a person who can verify a permanent address elsewhere and lives or stays in my home less than 30 days.

Reporting Household Income
The HRA is required to review my household income when I start the program and every year thereafter. I understand and certify that:

- I must provide true and complete information regarding my income as requested by the HRA.
- If I have changes in my household income prior to my next scheduled recertification, I must contact the HRA within 30 days of the change for a rent review.
- I may request that HRA review my rent portion if I experience a decrease in income.
- I must provide the HRA any required verification before a rent change will be made.
- I will be required to pay back rent overpaid on my behalf due to untimely reporting or non-cooperation.

Lease Violations, Evictions and Moving Without Notifying Landlord

- Any household members or guests must not commit any serious or repeated violation of the lease. Serious and repeated lease violations will include but are not limited to nonpayment of rent, utilities or other fees, moving without proper notice, disturbance to neighbors, unauthorized guests, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits that cause damage to the unit or premises and criminal activity.
- I must give the HRA a copy of any eviction notice I receive within 15 days of receipt of the notice.
- If any member of my household or guests commit serious or repeated lease violations, I am evicted by court order or I move out before the end of my lease without my landlord's permission, the HRA will terminate my rent assistance.

Inspections
The HRA is required to inspect my home prior to rental assistance beginning and every year thereafter to make sure it is decent, safe and sanitary housing. I understand and certify that:

- I must allow the HRA to inspect my unit at reasonable times and after reasonable notice.
- Full assistance will not be paid if my unit does not pass inspection prior to or on my move in date or recertification date.
- If full assistance is not paid due to failed inspection, it is my responsibility to negotiate the rent difference with the owner.
- Inspection violations caused by my household members or guests must be corrected in the time provided by the HRA.
- An adult, 18 years or older, must be present for the inspection.
Moving
I understand and certify that:

- My household can only receive rent assistance in one (1) unit in any twelve (12) month period. This includes moves to units within the same complex, within the HRA’s service area.
- If I move prior to living in a unit for 12 months, my assistance will be terminated, even if I sign less than a 12 month lease.
- I must give proper notice to my landlord according to the terms of my lease. I must also give the HRA a written 60 day notice before moving out of my rental unit. A proper 60 day notice is 2 full calendar months, prior to the move-out date. Notice must be received prior to the 1st of a month. Example: If I want to move at the end of June, I must give notice by April 30th. (This applies even if I am moving to another unit in the same building or complex).
- If I move prior to the end of my lease, I must submit to the HRA a mutual agreement signed by my landlord.
- I understand that an exception may be considered in accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) or as a reasonable accommodation request.
- I must be current with any repayment agreement in order to move within Metro HRA’s jurisdiction. If I choose to move outside of Metro HRA’s jurisdiction any debt must be paid in full, prior to porting my voucher to another housing authority.

The HRA may deny permission to move with continued assistance if:
- I move prior to fulfilling the twelve (12) month minimum requirement;
- My household has violated the Statement of Responsibilities;
- I owe money to any HRA or my current landlord;
- I have not given a proper sixty (60) day written notice to the HRA and my landlord.

- Household members living in my home are not living in another rental unit or receiving another rent subsidy.
- I must not own or have any ownership interest in the HRA assisted unit.
- I must not sublease or rent any part of my unit to anyone else.

- I am not allowed to pay my landlord any more than my rent portion as approved by the HRA.

- Payments made to my landlord and approved by the HRA for additional amenities such as garages, pet deposit, washer and dryer are not considered side payments.

Absence from Unit
I understand and certify that:
- Any family member can be absent from my unit for a total of 180 days. I must notify the HRA of household member absences exceeding 30 days. The family is required to report and provide documentation of the absence to establish a beginning and end date of absence. Family members absent from the unit for more than 180 days will be permanently removed from the household. If the entire family is absent more than 180 days, the HRA may terminate my assistance.

Metro HRA waxa ay idii heli kartaa tarjubaan lacag la'aan ah, haddii aad codsataan.
Moving
Metro HRA has specific policies that need to be followed in order to move with continued rent assistance. Consider the following questions:

- Have you fulfilled your lease with your current landlord?
- Have you lived in your current home for at least 12 months with Housing Choice Voucher rent assistance?
- HRA only allows rent assistance in 1 unit in a 12 month period.
- Did you give proper notice to your landlord according to the terms of your lease and give the HRA a written 60 day notice?
- Do you owe money to Metro HRA, any other PHA or your current landlord?

When the above is complete, what can you expect?
1. You will get a move packet in the mail from your HRA Coordinator if you are eligible to move. This will include a full review of your household members, income and deductions.
2. You will be issued a Voucher to begin your housing search when your income review is complete.
3. You must sign and return the Voucher to the HRA.
4. When you find a new home, you need to have the new landlord fill out the Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) - green form. The RTA must be submitted to the HRA by 4:30 p.m. on the 15th of the month for rent assistance to begin on the 1st of the following month.
5. HRA will determine if the rent is reasonable for the unit you selected.
6. HRA will request an inspection
7. HRA will require a copy of the lease you have signed with the landlord.
8. HRA will enter into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract with your new landlord to begin making rent assistance payments on your behalf.

If an RTA is not turned in by the deadlines, assistance may be delayed up to one month.

If moving outside the Metro HRA service area
If you are moving outside of Metro HRA’s service area, rules will change. Your new housing authority may have different rules regarding bedroom size, eligibility, RTA deadlines and will determine when your rent assistance will begin. If you have located a unit in the area you are moving to, you must return the RTA to Metro HRA. Metro HRA will then forward your file to the housing authority where you are moving. The process MAY cause delays in the start of your rental assistance in your new unit. Be prepared. The receiving housing authority must approve the unit you select and the unit must pass an inspection. If you move into the unit before final approval from the new housing authority, you may be held responsible for the full rent on the unit.

Repayment agreements must be paid in full prior to the issuance of a voucher to move out of Metro HRA jurisdiction.

Can you rent from a relative?
You cannot receive Housing Choice Voucher assistance in a home owned by a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother of any member of your household. The HRA may approve renting from a relative as a reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities. It is your responsibility to request an accommodation for HRA consideration.

Reasonable Accommodation / Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)
An exception to program rules may be considered in accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) or as a reasonable accommodation request for persons with disabilities. It is your responsibility to contact the HRA and request an accommodation, in writing, if you are a victim of VAWA or a person with disabilities. You must explain what accommodation or exception is being requested and how it will help you use the HRA programs. The request must be reasonable.

Where can you use your Rental Assistance (Portability)?
Housing Choice Voucher rent assistance can be used anywhere in the United States where there is a housing authority operating the Housing Choice Voucher program. However, if you are receiving assistance for the first time, you may be required to live in Metro HRA’s service area for one year prior to moving to another housing authority’s service area.

Who will screen your rental application?
Landlords are responsible for screening all tenants for suitability. The HRA must give prospective owners your current address and your current and previous landlord’s name and address, if known to the HRA.
Informal Reviews are provided for applicants who are denied assistance before the effective date of the Housing Assistance Payment Contract.

Informal Hearings are provided for participants when the HRA makes a decision regarding the eligibility and/or the amount of assistance.

Applicants and participants must be notified of their ineligibility in writing by the HA.

If you would like to submit an appeal, you must send that request in writing within ten days of the Housing Authority's notice of decision.

INFORMAL HEARING PROCEDURES (Participants Only)

If a family does not appear at a scheduled hearing and has not rescheduled the hearing in advance, the family must contact the HA within two (2) working days. The HA will reschedule the hearing only one time if the family can show good cause for the failure to appear.

In the case of damage claims, hearings are rescheduled upon mutual agreement of both owner and family.

Families have the right to:

- Present written or oral objections to the HA's determination;
- Examine the documents in the file which are the basis for the HA's action, and all documents submitted to the Hearing Officer;
- Copy any relevant documents at their expense;
- Present any information or witnesses pertinent to the issue of the hearing;
- Request that HA staff be available or present at the hearing to answer questions pertinent to the case; and
- Be represented by legal counsel, advocate, or other designated representative at their own expense.

If the family requests copies of documents relevant to the hearing, the HA will make the copies for the family. In no case will the family be allowed to remove the file from the HA's office.

In addition to other rights outlined in the HA's Administrative Plan, Chapter 19, Complaints and Appeals, the HA has a right to:

- Present evidence and any information pertinent to the issue of the hearing;
- Be notified if the family intends to be represented by legal counsel, advocate, or another party;
- Examine and copy any documents to be used by the family prior to the hearing;
• Have its attorney present; and
• Have staff persons and other witnesses familiar with the case present.

The Informal Hearing shall be conducted by the Hearing Officer appointed by the HA who is neither the person who made or approved the decision, nor a subordinate of that person. The HA appoints hearing officers who are employees of the Metropolitan Council and are not directly involved with HRA daily operations.

The hearing shall concern only the issues for which the family has received the opportunity for hearing. Evidence presented at the hearing may be considered without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings.

No documents may be presented which have not been provided to the other party before the hearing if requested by the other party. "Documents" includes records and regulations.

The Hearing Officer may ask the family for additional information and/or might adjourn the Hearing in order to reconvene at a later date, before reaching a decision.

If the family misses an appointment or deadline ordered by the Hearing Officer, the action of the HA shall take effect and another hearing will not be granted.

The Hearing Officer will determine whether the action, inaction or decision of the HA is legal in accordance with HUD regulations and this Administrative Plan based upon the evidence and testimony provided at the hearing. Factual determinations relating to the individual circumstances of the family will be based on a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing.

A notice of the Hearing Findings shall be provided in writing to the HA and the family within ten (10) working days and shall include:

• A clear summary of the decision and reasons for the decision;
• If the decision involves money owed, the amount owed;
• The date the decision goes into effect.

The HA is not bound by hearing decisions:

• Whicj concern matters in which the HA is not required to provide an opportunity for a hearing;
• Which conflict with or contradict HUD regulations or requirements;
• Which conflict with or contradict Federal, State or local laws; or
• Which exceed the authority of the person conducting the hearing.

The HA shall send a letter to the participant if it determines the HA is not bound by the Hearing Officer's determination within ten (10) working days. The letter shall include the HA's reasons for the decision.

All requests for a hearing, supporting documentation and a copy of the final decision will be retained in the family's file.

Get the Landlord's Rental Criteria in Writing
- How much income do they require?
- What credit scores will they accept?
- What are their rental history requirements?
- What past criminal activity do they decline?
- Note: DO NOT PAY AN APPLICATION FEE IF YOU DO NOT MEET THE LANDLORD’S CRITERIA

Fees You May Have to Pay
- Application Fee - $20 - $70
- Security Deposit – Varies, but anywhere from $100 – One month’s rent is common
- Administrative Fee – It’s not as common as the first two, but some properties charge this fee. The amount varies.
- Late Fees – Up to 8% of your rent payment if you pay your rent late.

Move-In Day
- Fill out a move in/move out form and make detailed notes about the unit's condition. Is the carpet worn in spots? Write it down. Is there a scratch on the wall? Write it down. Both you and your landlord should sign this document and both get a copy. That way you aren’t blamed for wear and tear or damages you didn’t create.

Living in the Unit
- Pay rent on time
- Communicate maintenance issues right away
- Know the rules in your lease. Getting evicted because you have loud parties or are noisy will come back to haunt you.
- Keep your unit clean & be a good neighbor

Moving Out
- How far in advance do you have to notify the landlord that you are leaving? (It’s in your lease)
- Clean the unit thoroughly

Is Your Background Causing You Trouble?
- Be open & honest about what happened & explain why things are better now.
- Do not pay an application fee if you don’t meet the rental criteria.

HHS provides HUD with wage and employment information as reported by employers; and unemployment compensation information as reported by the State Workforce Agency (SWA).

SSA provides HUD with death, Social Security (SS) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) information.

What is the EIV information used for?
Primarily, the information is used by PHAs (and management agents hired by PHAs) for the following purposes to:

1. Confirm your name, date of birth (DOB), and Social Security Number (SSN) with SSA.
2. Verify your reported income sources and amounts.
3. Confirm your participation in only one HUD rental assistance program.
4. Confirm if you owe an outstanding debt to any PHA.
5. Confirm any negative status if you moved out of a subsidized unit (in the past) under the Public Housing or Section 8 program.
6. Follow up with you, other adult household members, or your listed emergency contact regarding deceased household members.

EIV will alert your PHA if you or anyone in your household has used a false SSN, failed to report complete and accurate income information, or is receiving rental assistance at another address. Remember, you may receive rental assistance at only one home!

EIV will also alert PHAs if you owe an outstanding debt to any PHA (in any state or U.S. territory) and any negative status when you voluntarily or involuntarily moved out of a subsidized unit under the Public Housing or Section 8 program. This information is used to determine your eligibility for rental assistance at the time of application.

The information in EIV is also used by HUD, HUD’s Office of Inspector General (OIG), and auditors to ensure that your family and PHAs comply with HUD rules.

Overall, the purpose of EIV is to identify and prevent fraud within HUD rental assistance programs, so that limited taxpayer’s dollars can assist as many eligible families as possible. EIV will help to improve the integrity of HUD rental assistance programs.

Is my consent required in order for information to be obtained about me?
Yes, your consent is required in order for HUD or the PHA to obtain information about you. By law, you are required to sign one or more consent forms. When you sign a form HUD-8866 (Federal Privacy Act Notice and Authorization for Release of Information) or a PHA consent form (which meets HUD standards), you are giving HUD and the PHA your consent for them to obtain information about you for the purpose of determining your eligibility and amount of rental assistance. The information collected about you will be used only to determine your eligibility for the program, unless you consent in writing to authorize additional uses of the information by the PHA.

Note: If you or any of your adult household members refuse to sign a consent form, your request for initial or continued rental assistance may be denied. You may also be terminated from the HUD rental assistance program.

What are my responsibilities?
As a tenant (participant) of a HUD rental assistance program, you and each adult household member must disclose complete and accurate information to the PHA, including full name, SSN, and DOB; income information; and certify that your reported household composition (household members), income, and expense information is true to the best of your knowledge.
Remember, you must notify your PHA if a household member dies or moves out. You must also obtain the PHA's approval to allow additional family members or friends to move in your home prior to them moving in.

What are the penalties for providing false information?

Knowingly providing false, inaccurate, or incomplete information is FRAUD and a CRIME.

If you commit fraud, you and your family may be subject to any of the following penalties:

1. Eviction
2. Termination of assistance
3. Repayment of rent that you should have paid had you reported your income correctly
4. Prohibited from receiving future rental assistance for a period of up to 10 years
5. Prosecution by the local, state, or Federal prosecutor, which may result in you being fined up to $10,000 and/or serving time in jail.

Protect yourself by following HUD reporting requirements. When completing applications and reexaminations, you must include all sources of income you or any member of your household receives.

If you have any questions on whether money received should be counted as income or how your rent is determined, ask your PHA. When changes occur in your household income, contact your PHA immediately to determine if this will affect your rental assistance.

What do I do if the EIV information is incorrect?

Sometimes the source of EIV information may make an error when submitting or reporting information about you. If you do not agree with the EIV information, let your PHA know.

If necessary, your PHA will contact the source of the information directly to verify disputed income information. Below are the procedures you and the PHA should follow regarding incorrect EIV information.

Debts owed to PHAs and termination information reported in EIV originates from the PHA who provided you assistance in the past. If you dispute this information, contact your former PHA directly in writing to dispute this information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record from EIV.

Employment and wage information reported in EIV originates from the employer. If you dispute this information, contact the employer in writing to dispute and request correction of the disputed employment and/or wage information. Provide your PHA with a copy of the letter that you sent to the employer. If you are unable to get the employer to correct the information, you should contact the SWA for assistance.

Unemployment benefit information reported in EIV originates from the SWA. If you dispute this information, contact the SWA in writing to dispute and request correction of the disputed unemployment benefit information. Provide your PHA with a copy of the letter that you sent to the SWA.

Death, SS and SSI benefit information reported in EIV originates from the SSA. If you dispute this information, contact the SSA at (800) 772-1213; file an identity theft complaint with your local police department or the Federal Trade Commission (call FTC at (877) 438-4338, or you may visit their website at: http://www.ftc.gov). Provide your PHA with a copy of your identity theft complaint.

Where can I obtain more information on EIV and the income verification process?

Your PHA can provide you with additional information on EIV and the income verification process. You may also read more about EIV and the income verification process on HUD's Public and Indian Housing EIV web pages at: http://www.huduser.org/ PIHPrograms/PIH/sfiv/cfm.

The information in this Guide pertains to applicants and participants (tenants) of the following HUD-PIH rental assistance programs:

1. Public Housing (24 CFR 960); and
2. Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher (HCV), (24 CFR 882); and
3. Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882); and
4. Project-Based Voucher (24 CFR 983)

¿Qué es EIV?
El sistema de verificación de renta de Enterprise (EIV) es un sistema informático basado en web que contiene información de empleo y los ingresos de las personas que participan en programas de asistencia de alquiler de HUD.

¿Qué información se encuentra en EIV y dónde procede?
HUD obtiene información acerca de usted de su PHA local, la administración de seguro social (SSA) y U.S. Departamento de salud y servicios humanos (HHS). SSA ofrece HUD con la muerte, la seguridad social (SS) y la información de ingresos de seguridad suplementarios (SSI).

¿Qué se usa la información de EIV?
En primer lugar, la información es utilizada por la PHAs (y agentes de administración contratados por PHAs) para los siguientes fines para:

1. Confirmar su nombre, fecha de nacimiento (DOB) y número de seguro Social (SSN) con SSA.
2. Compruebe sus fuentes indicaron que su ingreso y cantidades.
3. Confirmar su participación en un único HUD alquiler asistencia programa.

Fair Housing
Equal Opportunity for All

The rich diversity of our people, coupled with the unity of spirit upon which this nation was founded, is America's true strength. We are a nation that celebrates equality of opportunity, which makes it all the more disturbing when new immigrants, minorities, families with children, and people with disabilities are denied housing because of unfair housing discrimination.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development enforces the Fair Housing Act and the other federal laws that prohibit discrimination and the intimidation of people in their homes. These laws cover virtually all housing in the United States - private homes, apartment buildings, and condominium developments - and nearly all housing transactions, including the rental and sale of housing and the provision of mortgage loans.

Equal access to rental housing and homeownership opportunities is the cornerstone of this nation’s federal housing policy. Landlords who refuse to rent or sell homes to people based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or disability are violating federal law, and HUD will vigorously pursue them.

Housing discrimination is not only illegal, it contradicts in every way the principles of freedom and opportunity we treasure as Americans. The Department of Housing and Urban Development is committed to ensuring that for everyone seeking a place to live, all housing is Fair Housing.

Secretary

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in housing because of:
- Race or color
- National origin
- Religion
- Sex
- Familial status (including children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians; pregnant women and people securing custody of children under 18)
- Handicap (Disability)

What Housing Is Covered?
The Fair Housing Act covers most housing. In some circumstances, the Act exempts owner-occupied buildings with no more than four units, single-family housing sold or rented without the use of a broker and housing operated by organizations and private clubs that limit occupancy to members.

What Is Prohibited?
In the Sale and Rental of Housing: No one may take any of the following actions based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status or handicap (disability):
- Refuse to rent or sell housing
- Refuse to negotiate for housing
- Make housing unavailable
- Deny a dwelling
- Set different terms, conditions or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling
- Provide different housing services or facilities
- Falsely deny that housing is available for inspection, sale or rental
- For profit, persuade owners to sell or rent (blockbusting) or
- Deny anyone access to or membership in a facility or service (such as a multiple listing service) related to the sale or rental of housing.

In Mortgage Lending: No one may take any of the following actions based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status or handicap (disability):
- Refuse to make a mortgage loan
- Refuse to provide information regarding loans
- Impose different terms or conditions on a loan, such as different interest rates, points, or fees
- Discriminate in appraising property
- Refuse to purchase a loan or
- Set different terms or conditions for purchasing a loan

In Addition: it is illegal for anyone to:
- Threaten, coerce, Intimidate or interfere with anyone exercising a fair housing right or assisting others who exercise that right
- Advertise or make any statement that indicates a limitation or preference based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status or handicap (disability). This prohibition against discriminatory advertising applies to single-family and owner-occupied housing that is otherwise exempt from the Fair Housing Act.
If you or someone associated with you:

- Have a physical or mental disability (including hearing, mobility and visual impairments, cancer, chronic mental illness, AIDS, AIDS Related Complex and mental retardation) that substantially limits one or more major life activities
- Have a record of such a disability or
- Are regarded as having such a disability your landlord may not:
  - Refuse to let you make reasonable modifications to your dwelling or common use areas, at your expense, if necessary for the disabled person to use the housing. (Where reasonable, the landlord may permit changes only if you agree to restore the property to its original condition when you move.)
  - Refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices or services if necessary for the disabled person to use the housing

Example: A building with a "no pets" policy must allow a visually impaired tenant to keep a guide dog.

Example: An apartment complex that offers tenants ample, unassigned parking must honor a request from a mobility-impaired tenant for a reserved space near her apartment if necessary to assure that she can have access to her apartment.

However, housing need not be made available to a person who is a direct threat to the health or safety of others or who currently uses illegal drugs.

Requirements for New Buildings: In buildings that are ready for first occupancy after March 13, 1991, and have an elevator or four or more units:

- Public and common areas must be accessible to persons with disabilities
- Doors and hallways must be wide enough for wheelchairs
- All units must have:
  - An accessible route into and through the unit
  - Accessible light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats and other environmental controls
  - Reinforced bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars and
  - Kitchen and bathrooms that can be used by people in wheelchairs

If a building with four or more units has no elevator and will be ready for first occupancy after March 13, 1991, these standards apply to ground floor units.

These requirements for new buildings do not replace any more stringent standards in State or local law.
Housing Opportunities for Families

Unless a building or community qualifies as housing for older persons, it may not discriminate based on familial status. That is, it may not discriminate against families in which one or more children under 18 live with:

- A parent
- A person who has legal custody of the child or children or
- The designee of the parent or legal custodian, with the parent or custodian’s written permission.

Familial status protection also applies to pregnant women and anyone securing legal custody of a child under 18.

Exemption: Housing for older persons is exempt from the prohibition against familial status discrimination if:

- The HUD Secretary has determined that it is specifically designed for and occupied by elderly persons under a Federal, State or local government program or
- It is occupied solely by persons who are 62 or older or
- It houses at least one person who is 55 or older in at least 80 percent of the occupied units, and adheres to a policy that demonstrates an intent to house persons who are 55 or older.

A transition period permits residents on or before September 13, 1988 to continue living in the housing, regardless of their age, without interfering with the exemption.

If You Think Your Rights Have Been Violated

What Happens When You File A Complaint?

If You Are Disabled: HUD also provides:
- A TTY phone for the deaf/hard of hearing users; see above list for the HUD office nearest you.
- Interpreters
- Tapes and braille materials
- Assistance in reading and completing forms

HUD will notify you when it receives your complaint. Normally, HUD also will:
- Notify the alleged violator of your complaint and permit that person to submit an answer
- Investigate your complaint and determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe the Fair Housing Act has been violated
- Notify you if it cannot complete an investigation within 100 days of receiving your complaint

Conciliation: HUD will try to reach an agreement with the person your complaint is against (the respondent). A conciliation agreement must protect both you and the public interest. If an agreement is signed, HUD will take no further action on your complaint. However, if HUD has reasonable cause to believe that a conciliation agreement is breached, HUD will recommend that the Attorney General file suit.

Complaint Referrals: If HUD has determined that your State or local agency has the same fair housing powers as HUD, HUD will refer your complaint to that agency for investigation and notify you of the referral. That agency must begin work on your complaint within 30 days or HUD may take it back.
Does the U.S. Department of Justice Play A Role?

If you need immediate help to stop a serious problem that is being caused by a Fair Housing Act violation, HUD may be able to assist you as soon as you file a complaint. HUD may authorize the United States Attorney General to go to court to seek temporary or preliminary relief, pending the outcome of your complaint, if:

- Irreparable harm is likely to occur without HUD’s intervention
- There is substantial evidence that a violation of the Fair Housing Act occurred

Example: A builder agrees to sell a house but, after learning the buyer is black, fails to keep the agreement. The buyer files a complaint with HUD. HUD may authorize the Attorney General to go to court to prevent a sale to any other buyer until HUD investigates the complaint.

What Happens After A Complaint Investigation?

If, after investigating your complaint, HUD finds reasonable cause to believe that discrimination occurred, it will inform you. Your case will be heard in an administrative hearing within 120 days, unless you or the respondent want the case to be heard in Federal district court. Either way, there is no cost to you.

The Administrative Hearing: If your case goes to an administrative hearing HUD attorneys will litigate the case on your behalf. You may intervene in the case and be represented by your own attorney if you wish. An Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) will consider evidence from you and the respondent. If the ALJ decides that discrimination occurred, the respondent can be ordered:

- To compensate you for actual damages, including humiliation, pain and suffering.
- To provide injunctive or other equitable relief, for example, to make the housing available to you.
- To pay the Federal Government a civil penalty to vindicate the public interest. The maximum penalties are $11,000 for a first violation, $27,500 for a previous violation within the preceding five year period and $55,000 for two or more previous violations within the preceding seven years.
- To pay reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.

Federal District Court: If you or the respondent choose to have your case decided in Federal District Court, the Attorney General will file a suit and litigate it on your behalf. Like the ALJ, the District Court can order relief, and award actual damages, attorney’s fees and costs. In addition, the court can award punitive damages.
You May File Suit: You may file suit, at your expense, in Federal District Court or State Court within two years of an alleged violation. If you cannot afford an attorney, the court may appoint one for you. You may bring suit even after filing a complaint, if you have not signed a conciliation agreement and an Administrative Law Judge has not started a hearing. A court may award actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees and costs.

Other Tools to Combat Housing Discrimination:
- If there is noncompliance with the order of an Administrative Law Judge, HUD may seek temporary relief, enforcement of the order or a restraining order in a United States Court of Appeals.
- The Attorney General may file a suit in Federal District Court if there is reasonable cause to believe a pattern or practice of housing discrimination is occurring.

For Further Information:
The purpose of this brochure is to summarize your right to fair housing. The Fair Housing Act and HUD's regulations contain more detail and technical information. ARE YOU A VICTIM OF HOUSING DISCRIMINATION?

"The American Dream of having a safe and decent place to call 'home' reflects our shared belief that in this nation, opportunity and success are within everyone's reach. Under our Fair Housing laws, every citizen is assured the opportunity to build a better life in the home or apartment of their choice — regardless of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, family status or disability."

Alphonso Jackson
Secretary

HOW DO YOU RECOGNIZE HOUSING DISCRIMINATION?

Under the Fair Housing Act, it is Against the Law to:

- Refuse to rent to you or sell you housing
- Tell you housing is unavailable when in fact it is available
- Show you apartments or homes only in certain neighborhoods
- Set different terms, conditions, or privileges for sale or rental of a dwelling
- Provide different housing services or facilities
- Advertise housing to preferred groups of people only
- Refuse to provide you with information regarding mortgage loans, deny you a mortgage loan, or impose different terms or conditions on a mortgage loan
- Deny you property insurance
- Conduct property appraisals in a discriminatory manner
- Refuse to make reasonable accommodations for persons with a disability if the accommodation may be necessary to afford such person a reasonable and equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling.
- Fail to design and construct housing in an accessible manner
- Harass, coerce, intimidate, or interfere with anyone exercising or assisting someone else with his/her fair housing rights

APPENDIX C
HUD unveils the first housing discrimination mobile application (app) for iPhone and iPad. Developed by HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity and Hewlett Packard, the app uses the latest technology to provide the public with a quick and easy way to learn about their housing rights and to file housing discrimination complaints, and inform the housing industry about its responsibilities under the Fair Housing Act. The app also provides information about the fair housing complaint process, and allows the public to access HUD's toll-free discrimination hotline and link to HUD's fair housing website: www.hud.gov/fairhousing. To get this housing discrimination app please visit the Apple App store.

Simple Steps To Protect Your Family From Lead Hazards

If you think your home has high levels of lead:

- Get your young children tested for lead, even if they seem healthy.
- Wash children's hands, bottles, pacifiers, and toys often.
- Make sure children eat healthy, low-fat foods.
- Get your home checked for lead hazards.
- Regularly clean floors, window sills, and other surfaces.
- Wipe soil off shoes before entering house.
- Talk to your landlord about fixing surfaces with peeling or chipping paint.
- Take precautions to avoid exposure to lead dust when remodeling or renovating (call 1-800-424-LEAD for guidelines).
- Don't use a belt-sander, propane torch, high temperature heat gun, scraper, or sandpaper on painted surfaces that may contain lead.
- Don't try to remove lead-based paint yourself.

Are You Planning To Buy, Rent, or Renovate a Home Built Before 1978?

Many houses and apartments built before 1978 have paint that contains high levels of lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards if not taken care of properly.

Owners, buyers, and renters are encouraged to check for lead (see page 6) before renting, buying or renovating pre-1978 housing.

Federal law requires that individuals receive certain information before renting, buying, or renovating pre-1978 housing:

Landlords have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases must include a disclosure about lead-based paint.

Sellers have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before selling a house. Sales contracts must include a disclosure about lead-based paint. Buyers have up to 10 days to check for lead.

Renovators disturbing more than 2 square feet of painted surfaces have to give you this pamphlet before starting work.

IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil Can Be Dangerous If Not Managed Properly

Fact: Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.

Fact: Even children who seem healthy can have high levels of lead in their bodies.

Fact: People can get lead in their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips containing lead.

Fact: People have many options for reducing lead hazards. In most cases, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard.

Fact: Removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.

If you think your home might have lead hazards, read this pamphlet to learn some simple steps to protect your family.
Lead Gets in the Body in Many Ways

People can get lead in their body if they:
- Breathe in lead dust (especially during renovations that disturb painted surfaces).
- Put their hands or other objects covered with lead dust in their mouths.
- Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.

Lead is even more dangerous to children under the age of 6:
- At this age children's brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.
- Children's growing bodies absorb more lead.
- Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.

Lead is also dangerous to women of childbearing age:
- Women with a high lead level in their system prior to pregnancy would expose a fetus to lead through the placenta during fetal development.

Lead's Effects

It is important to know that even exposure to low levels of lead can severely harm children.

In children, lead can cause:
- Nervous system and kidney damage.
- Learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, and decreased intelligence.
- Speech, language, and behavior problems.
- Poor muscle coordination.
- Decreased muscle and bone growth.
- Hearing damage.

While low-lead exposure is most common, exposure to high levels of lead can have devastating effects on children, including seizures, unconsciousness, and, in some cases, death.

Although children are especially susceptible to lead exposure, lead can be dangerous for adults too.

In adults, lead can cause:
- Increased chance of illness during pregnancy.
- Harm to a fetus, including brain damage or death.
- Fertility problems (in men and women).
- High blood pressure.
- Digestive problems.
- Nerve disorders.
- Memory and concentration problems.
- Muscle and joint pain.
Where Lead-Based Paint Is Found

Many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint. The federal government banned lead-based paint from housing in 1978. Some states stopped its use even earlier. Lead can be found:

- In homes in the city, country, or suburbs.
- In apartments, single-family homes, and both private and public housing.
- Inside and outside of the house.
- In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint or other sources such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

Checking Your Family for Lead

To reduce your child's exposure to lead, get your child checked, have your home tested (especially if your home has paint in poor condition and was built before 1978), and fix any hazards you may have. Children's blood lead levels tend to increase rapidly from 6 to 12 months of age, and tend to peak at 18 to 24 months of age.

Consult your doctor for advice on testing your children. A simple blood test can detect high levels of lead. Blood tests are usually recommended for:

- Children at ages 1 and 2.
- Children or other family members who have been exposed to high levels of lead.
- Children who should be tested under your state or local health screening plan.

Your doctor can explain what the test results mean and if more testing will be needed.

Identifying Lead Hazards

Lead-based paint is usually not a hazard if it is in good condition, and it is not on an impact or friction surface, like a window. It is defined by the federal government as paint with lead levels greater than or equal to 1.0 milligram per square centimeter, or more than 0.5% by weight.

Deteriorating lead-based paint (peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking or damaged) is a hazard and needs immediate attention. It may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear-and-tear, such as:

- Windows and window sills.
- Doors and door frames.
- Stairs, railings, banisters, and porches.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is scraped, sanded, or heated. Dust also forms when painted surfaces bump or rub together. Lead chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can re-enter the air when people vacuum, sweep, or walk through it. It may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear-and-tear, such as:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (µg/ft²) and higher for floors, including carpeted floors.
- 250 µg/ft² and higher for interior window sills.

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. The following two federal standards have been set for lead hazards in residential soil:

- 400 parts per million (ppm) and higher in play areas of bare soil.
- 1,200 ppm (average) and higher in bare soil in the remainder of the yard.

The only way to find out if paint, dust and soil lead hazards exist is to test for them. The next page describes the most common methods used.
Checking Your Home for Lead

You can get your home tested for lead in several different ways:

- A paint inspection tells you whether your home has lead-based paint and where it is located. It won't tell you whether or not your home currently has lead hazards.
- A risk assessment tells you if your home currently has any lead hazards from lead in paint, dust, or soil. It also tells you what actions to take to address any hazards.
- A combination risk assessment and inspection tells you if your home has any lead hazards and if your home has any lead-based paint, and where the lead-based paint is located.

Hire a trained and certified testing professional who will use a range of reliable methods when testing your home.

- Visual inspection of paint condition and location.
- A portable x-ray fluorescence (XRF) machine.
- Lab tests of paint, dust, and soil samples.

There are state and federal programs in place to ensure that testing is done safely, reliably, and effectively. Contact your state or local agency (see bottom of page 11) for more information, or call 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) for a list of contacts in your area.

Home test kits for lead are available, but may not always be accurate. Consumers should not rely on these kits before doing renovations or to assure safety.

What You Can Do Now To Protect Your Family

If you suspect that your house has lead hazards, you can take some immediate steps to reduce your family's risk:

- If you rent, notify your landlord of peeling or chipping paint.
- Clean up paint chips immediately.
- Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly. Use a mop or sponge with warm water and a general all-purpose cleaner or a cleaner made specifically for lead. REMEMBER: NEVER MIX AMMONIA AND BLEACH PRODUCTS TOGETHER SINCE THEY CAN FORM A DANGEROUS GAS.
- Thoroughly rinse sponges and mop heads after cleaning dirty or dusty areas.
- Wash children's hands often, especially before they eat and before nap time and bed time.
- Keep play areas clean. Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys, and stuffed animals regularly.
- Keep children from chewing window sills or other painted surfaces.
- Clean or remove shoes before entering your home to avoid tracking in lead from soil.
- Make sure children eat nutritious, low-fat meals high in iron and calcium, such as spinach and dairy products. Children with good diets absorb less lead.
Reducing Lead Hazards In The Home

Removing lead improperly can increase the hazard to your family by spreading even more lead dust around the house.

In addition to day-to-day cleaning and good nutrition:
- You can temporarily reduce lead hazards by taking actions such as repairing damaged painted surfaces and planting grass to cover soil with high lead levels. These actions (called "interim controls") are not permanent solutions and will need ongoing attention.
- To permanently remove lead hazards, you should hire a certified lead "abatement" contractor. Abatement (or permanent hazard elimination) methods include removing, sealing, or enclosing lead-based paint with special materials. Just painting over the hazard with regular paint is not permanent removal.

Always hire a person with special training for correcting lead problems—someone who knows how to do this work safely and has the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly. Certified contractors will employ qualified workers and follow strict safety rules as set by their state or by the federal government.

Once the work is completed, dust cleanup activities must be repeated until testing indicates that lead dust levels are below the following:
- 40 micrograms per square foot (µg/ft²) for floors, including carpeted floors;
- 250 µg/ft² for interior windowsills; and
- 400 µg/ft² for window troughs.

Call your state or local agency (see bottom of page 11) for help in locating certified professionals in your area and to see if financial assistance is available.

---

Remodeling or Renovating a Home With Lead-Based Paint

Take precautions before your contractor or you begin remodeling or renovating anything that disturbs painted surfaces (such as scraping off paint or tearing out walls):
- Have the area tested for lead-based paint.
- Do not use a belt-sander, propane torch, high temperature heat gun, dry scraper, or dry sandpaper to remove lead-based paint. These actions create large amounts of lead dust and fumes. Lead dust can remain in your home long after the work is done.
- Temporarily move your family (especially children and pregnant women) out of the apartment or house until the work is done and the area is properly cleaned. If you can't move your family, at least completely seal off the work area.
- Follow other safety measures to reduce lead hazards. You can find out about other safety measures by calling 1-800-424-LEAD. Ask for the brochure "Reducing Lead Hazards When Remodeling Your Home." This brochure explains what to do before, during, and after renovations.

If you have already completed renovations or remodeling that could have released lead-based paint or dust, get your young children tested and follow the steps outlined on page 7 of this brochure.
Other Sources of Lead

- Drinking water. Your home might have plumbing with lead or lead solder. Call your local health department or water supplier to find out about testing your water. You cannot see, smell, or taste lead, and boiling your water will not get rid of lead. If you think your plumbing might have lead in it:
  - Use only cold water for drinking and cooking.
  - Run water for 15 to 30 seconds before drinking it, especially if you have not used your water for a few hours.
- The job. If you work with lead, you could bring it home on your hands or clothes. Shower and change clothes before coming home. Launder your work clothes separately from the rest of your family's clothes.
- Old painted toys and furniture.
- Food and liquids stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelian.
- Lead smelters or other industries that release lead into the air.
- Hobbies that use lead, such as making pottery or stained glass, or refinishing furniture.
- Folk remedies that contain lead, such as "greta" and "azarcon" used to treat an upset stomach.

LANDLORDS AND TENANTS: RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

FROM THE OFFICE OF MINNESOTA ATTORNEY GENERAL LORI SWANSON

www.ag.state.mn.us
The rights and duties of landlords and tenants in Minnesota are spelled out in federal law, state statutes, local ordinances, safety and housing codes, common law, contract law, and a number of court decisions. These responsibilities can vary from place to place around the state.

Certain rights and duties apply to landlords and tenants everywhere in Minnesota. This handbook attempts to explain those rights. This booklet should not be considered legal advice to use in resolving specific landlord-tenant problems or questions. It is a summary of the laws that govern the landlord-tenant relationship. References to statutes and case law examples appear at the back of the brochure. When references are provided, they are signaled or noted by a number at the end of the sentence. If a cite does not appear, the information is likely derived from common law or case law.

Tenants in federal housing and other forms of subsidized housing have additional rights under federal law not covered in this handbook. Those tenants should check their leases for information.

Minn. Statute § 504B.181, subd. 2(b) requires landlords to notify residential tenants that this handbook is available to them.

APPENDIX E-3
According to Minnesota law, when the owner of a house or apartment agrees to give to someone else - for money or labor - the temporary use of that place, the two have entered into a legally binding rental contract. It doesn't matter if the agreement is oral or in writing. It is an agreement to rent, and that means some of its most important terms are automatically defined by law. Some of these terms are fixed - that is, neither landlord nor tenant can change them. Other terms can be whatever the landlord and tenant want if both parties agree. The following pages describe what the law requires of both landlords and tenants in a typical rental agreement.

1. INSPECTING THE UNIT BEFORE SIGNING A LEASE

Prospective tenants should be allowed to see the rental unit before they pay any money. They should also be allowed to inspect the utilities, the appliances, the electrical system, the plumbing, heating, and lights. Landlords with single-metered residential buildings must provide prospective tenants with the total utility costs for the building for the most recent calendar year. Potential tenants may, if they choose, list the problems they discover, and may request the landlord sign the list before the potential tenants sign a lease. Landlords can refuse to cooperate (these are not "rights" legally enforceable in court), but cooperation is advised. To have a list of problems is in the best interest of both landlord and tenant, since it protects all parties if there is a disagreement about who is responsible for any repairs.

Some cities in Minnesota require landlords to get licenses for their apartments. In these cities, landlords who rent an unlicensed apartment may not be able to accept or keep rent. Prospective tenants and landlords should check with their local government authorities to determine if apartments need to be licensed.

2. REQUIRED MANAGEMENT BACKGROUND CHECK

The law requires landlords to do a background check on every manager employed, or applying to be employed, by the landlord. (1) A manager is anyone who is hired, or applying to be hired, by a landlord, and would have access to tenants' units when necessary. (2) Background checks are done by the Superintendent of the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (BCA) to find out if the manager has a criminal history. The following guidelines have been established by law for landlords to follow when hiring a manager.

If a person is convicted of first or second degree murder; first degree manslaughter; first, second or third degree assault; kidnapping; first, second, third or fourth degree criminal sexual conduct; first degree arson; harassment or stalking, (3) the person may never be hired as a residential manager and may be fired if the manager was hired pending the background check. (4)

If a person is convicted of third degree murder; second degree manslaughter; criminal vehicular homicide or injury; fourth or fifth degree assault; simple or aggravated robbery; false imprisonment; theft; burglary; terrorist threat, or non-felony harassment or stalking, (5) the person may not be hired as a manager unless it has been ten years since the conviction. (6)
The person also cannot be hired as a manager if there was a conviction for an attempt to commit one of these crimes, or a conviction for a crime in another state that would be a crime under Minnesota’s background check law. (7)

All landlords must request background checks on all currently employed managers. (8) For a sample form, to obtain information regarding a background check, or to begin the background check process, owners and landlords can contact the Minnesota BCA, Criminal Justice Information System, 1430 Maryland Avenue East, St. Paul, MN 55106, or call (651) 793-2400. Landlords must pay a fee for each background check. (9)

3. SCREENING FEES AND PRE-LEASE FEES

Many landlords, particularly in urban areas, require prospective tenants to pay a screening fee. Some landlords do not. If required, the screening fee is used to cover the cost of checking the tenant’s references. Prospective tenants should ask if a screening fee is required and, if so, the amount of the fee. Tenants should also ask if screening fees are refundable and request a receipt for payment. Landlords can’t take screening fees from prospective tenants when there are no rental units available within a reasonable time. (10) The landlord must return to the prospective tenant any amount of the screening fee that is not used to perform a reference check or to obtain a tenant screening report. (11)

Landlords are also permitted to take pre-lease deposits. These deposits are required to be in writing and the document must completely explain when the money will be retained or returned. A landlord who violates this statute is liable for the amount of the deposit plus one-half that amount as a penalty. If the landlord and the prospective tenant enter into a rental agreement, the pre-lease deposit must be applied to the tenant’s security deposit or rent. (12)

4. SECURITY DEPOSITS

Landlords have the right to require tenants to pay a security deposit (sometimes called a “damage deposit”). This is money paid by the tenant and held by the landlord to pay for any damage, beyond ordinary wear and tear, the tenant might do to the rental unit. It can be used to pay for any unpaid rent or any money the tenant owes to the landlord under the lease or another agreement (e.g. water utility bills). (13) The security deposit cannot be used by the tenant to pay the rent, except that a tenant may withhold payment of rent for the last month of a contract for deed cancellation period or mortgage foreclosure redemption period. A mortgage foreclosure redemption period is the time following the sheriff’s sale during which the owner of the property can pay the sale price plus interest and certain costs and avoid losing his or her ownership interest in the property. Similarly, a contract for deed cancellation period is the time during which the buyer of property can avoid cancellation by paying the amount due and certain costs. (14)

Security deposits are attached to those whose names are stated within the lease, and are returned to the leaseholder(s) who has remained until the end of the rental term. This means that, for example, if three individuals share a unit as roommates, and two renters vacate prior to the end of the tenancy, the security deposit only has to be returned to the tenant who has remained. Of course, the landlord may choose to locate the tenants who had vacated, and remit to each individual the divided security deposit.
Amount of the Deposit

Minnesota law does not limit the amount a landlord may require as a security deposit. A landlord can increase the amount of the security deposit at any time during a "periodic tenancy" (a rental agreement in which no final date is mentioned), but only if the tenant is given proper advance written notice. Generally, this notice period is one rental period plus a day. (See page 9 for an explanation of "periodic leases.")

If the deposit amount is stated in the rental agreement, and the rental agreement has a definite ending date, no changes in the deposit can be made unless both parties agree to the changes or the lease allows for changes.

At the end of the tenancy, the landlord must return the deposit to the tenant with interest. Presently, the required interest rate is one percent (see the chart below), which is calculated as simple noncompounded interest. (15) The landlord may keep the amount necessary to repair any damage done to the unit by the tenant (beyond ordinary wear and tear), or to pay off other debts related to the tenancy, including any unpaid rent. (16) (See page 22 for landlord and tenant rights in the refund of security deposits.)

5. TENANT REPORTS

A "Tenant Report" is defined by Minnesota law as a written or oral report by a tenant screening service. A tenant report consists of information about an individual's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or lifestyle. It is collected and used to approve or deny a tenancy. (17) The federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act" (18) also governs tenant-screening reports. (19) Agencies that compile tenant reports are called "Tenant Screening Services." This term applies to anyone who gathers, stores and disseminates information about tenants, or assembles tenant reports for a fee or on a cooperative nonprofit basis. (20)

The law requires tenant-screening services to disclose to consumers upon request:

1) All information in the individual's file at the time of the request.
2) The source of information.
3) A list of all people who received a copy of the report in the past year.
4) A statement of the tenant's rights regarding these reports. (21) Upon furnishing proper identification (photo ID, date of birth, Social Security number, etc.) individuals may get a copy of their report by mail, phone, in person or any other means available to the screening agency. (22)

APPENDIX E-7
A copy of a tenant’s report must be given to the tenant without charge if, in the past 60 days, this information was used to deny a rental application or to increase the rent or security deposit of a residential housing unit. A person may also obtain a free copy of the tenant report if the person receives public assistance, intends to seek employment within the next 60 days, or has reason to believe that his or her file contains inaccurate information due to fraud. Otherwise, the agency may charge a fee of $3 for the report. (23)

If a person feels the tenant report is incomplete or inaccurate, the person can require the tenant screening service to reinvestigate and record the current status of the information. If the information is found to be inaccurate or cannot be verified within 30 days, it must be deleted from the tenant’s file. The agency must give the tenant written notice of the resolution of the dispute, and, if information was changed, the tenant can require that notice of the change also be sent to anyone who received the report within the last six months. If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute, the tenant may write an “explanation” of the problem to be included in the report. The screening service may limit this explanation to 100 words. (24) If a landlord uses information in a tenant report to deny rental, increase the security deposit, or increase rent of a residential housing unit, the landlord is required to:

1) Provide oral, written, or electronic notice of the adverse action to the tenant.
2) Provide the name, address, and phone number of the screening service that prepared the report.
3) Inform the tenant of the right to obtain a free copy of the report from the screening service. (25) Also, a landlord could disclose the contents of the report to the tenant directly. A tenant screening service may not prohibit a landlord from doing this. (26)

Some landlords will be willing to work with prospective tenants with a bad credit rating or landlord history if the tenant will assure them that they will get paid. Many landlords will take double or triple damage deposits to cover them for their lost rent if they are concerned about a prospective tenant. Another option is to have someone co-sign the lease. Religious leaders and community leaders might be willing to act as references and talk to a prospective landlord on a tenant’s behalf.

In limited situations, tenants who have been named as defendants in eviction cases may ask a court to remove the case from the court record. This procedure is called “expungement.” In most situations, the law permits, but does not require, a judge to expunge an eviction case from the court’s records. The court must find that the landlord’s case was “sufficiently without basis in fact or law,” and that expungement is “in the interests of justice and those interests are not outweighed by the public’s interest in knowing the record.” (27) Expungement is sometimes mandatory if the tenant was evicted due to a mortgage foreclosure or contract for deed cancellation. The court will expunge the record of the eviction if the tenant vacated the property before the eviction action was started or the tenant did not receive a proper notice to vacate on a date prior to the start of the eviction action. (28) If a judge orders expungement, the tenant reporting company should be notified so its reports will be updated.

6. THE LEASE

The terms of any rental agreement are stated in the lease. This can be either a signed, written document or an oral agreement. The landlord may ask for the tenant’s full name and date of birth on the lease. (29) If a building contains 12 or more residential units, the owner must use a written lease. (30) An owner who fails to provide a written lease as required is guilty of a petty misdemeanor. (31) If there are fewer than 12 residential units, the owner may use an oral agreement without violating the law.
Any tenant with a written lease must be given a copy of the written lease. If legal action is taken to enforce a written lease (except for the nonpayment of rent, disturbing the peace, malicious destruction of property, or illegal activities, see page 26 for an explanation of “illegal activities”), it is a defense for the tenant to show that the landlord did not give the tenant a lease. The landlord can argue against this defense by showing that the tenant had actual knowledge of the terms of the lease. (32)

If a tenant builds or buys a home, changes jobs, or has health problems that require relocation, a tenant does not have a legal right to get out of a lease, unless the lease itself contains other provisions which allow a tenant to break the lease or the landlord agrees to release the tenant from the terms of the lease.

The “personal representative” of a renter’s estate may terminate a lease upon the death of the renter after two full months’ written notice. (33) A tenant may vacate a unit if it becomes uninhabitable or unfit for occupancy (see page 19). In certain circumstances, a renter called to duty in the armed forces can give 30 days notice. The military service member/tenant should contact his/her Judge Advocate General Office for information.

There are two kinds of leases and the laws are different for each:

1) The periodic lease (generally a month-to-month tenancy). (34)
2) The lease for a definite term (a rental agreement specifying a definite rental period, generally six months or a year).

Periodic Leases
If there is nothing mentioned about the length of the tenancy in the rental agreement, the lease is periodic. This means the rental period runs from one rent payment to the next. (35) For example, if the rent is due once a month on the first of every month, the rental period runs from that day through the day before the next rent payment. In this case, that would be on the last day of each month.

A periodic tenancy is continued until it is ended by either the landlord or the tenant. The person ending the tenancy must give the other party proper notice. The length of notice and the form it must take may be stated in the lease. (36) If the lease does not state a notice requirement, state law requires that written notice be given one full rental period plus one day before the tenancy ends. (37) For example, a tenant with a month-to-month tenancy who wishes to leave at the end of June would have to give written notice no later than May 31. (See page 20 for a more complete explanation of proper notice.)

Definite Term Leases
If the lease states how long the tenancy will last (usually six months or a year), the agreement is a definite term lease. This type of lease is usually in writing. (If the lease is for more than a year or will end more than a year after it is formed, it must be in writing.) Definite term leases generally state what kind of notice is required to end the tenancy. Definite term leases may have automatic renewal clauses, discussed on page 20. If there is no notice requirement, the tenancy ends on the day the lease says it does, unless the landlord and tenant agree (preferably in writing) to some other kind of arrangement. (38)

Length Restrictions for Some Leases
If an owner has received notice of a contract for deed cancellation or a mortgage foreclosure sale, generally the owner may not enter into a long-term lease with a tenant until one of several events happens: the contract for deed is reinstated, payments under the mortgage are caught up, the mortgage is reinstated or paid off, or a receiver is appointed for the property. Instead, the owner or landlord may enter into a periodic tenancy lease with a term of two months or the time remaining in the owner’s contract for deed cancellation or mortgage foreclosure redemption period, whichever is less, or a definite term lease with a term not extending beyond the cancellation or redemption period. (39) (Page 6 describes a contract for deed cancellation period and mortgage redemption period.) The owner must notify a prospective tenant of the notice of contract for deed cancellation or notice of mortgage foreclosure sale prior to entering into a lease or accepting any rent or a security deposit. (40)

A longer term lease is permitted if the bank holding the mortgage on the property, the seller under the contract for deed, or the purchaser at the sheriff’s sale, whichever is applicable, agrees not to terminate the lease (except in the case of lease violations) for at least one year. The lease cannot require the tenant to prepay any rent which would be due after the expiration of the cancellation or redemption period. The contract for deed seller or purchaser at the sheriff’s sale must provide written notice to the tenant of the expiration of the cancellation or redemption period and the tenant is then obligated to pay rent to the seller or purchaser as his or her new landlord. (41)

Sale of the Building
If the landlord sells the house or apartment (as opposed to foreclosure by a bank), the lease transfers to the new owner (buyer). (42)

7. DISCLOSURE TO THE TENANT

Before signing a lease, paying rent, or paying a security deposit, a prospective tenant must be given a copy of all outstanding inspection orders for which a citation has been issued. (Citations are issued by a housing inspector when a housing code is violated and the health or safety of tenants is threatened.) In addition, a tenant or prospective tenant must be given a copy of all outstanding condemnation orders and declarations that the property is unfit for human habitation. (43)

If the inspection order results in a citation but does not involve violations that threaten the health and safety of the tenant, the landlord (or person acting for the landlord) must post a summary of the inspection order in an obvious place in each building affected by the order. The landlord (or person acting for the landlord) must also post a notice that the inspection order is available for review by tenants and prospective tenants. (44)

A landlord has not violated these requirements if the housing inspector has not issued a citation, the landlord has received only an initial order to make repairs, the time allowed to finish the repairs has not run out, or less than 60 days has passed since the deadline for making the repairs. (45)

Additionally, landlords who rent units built before 1978 must disclose all known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the unit, include a warning in the lease, and give renters a copy of the Environmental Protection Agency’s pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home. Lead-based paint that is peeling (or its dust) may be especially hazardous to children’s health. Tenants who suspect that they have a lead paint problem or would like to get more information should call the National Lead Information Center at 1-800-424-5323 and request a copy of the EPA’s pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.
Further, as discussed above, a landlord must disclose to a prospective tenant that he or she has received a notice of contract for deed cancellation or notice of mortgage foreclosure prior to entering into a lease with a tenant or accepting payment of rent or a security deposit. In addition, a bank which forecloses on a landlord’s property generally must provide a foreclosure advice notice to a tenant at the same time it serves the landlord with a notice of sale. A bank may be liable to the tenant for $500 if it violates this statute. (46)

8. UTILITIES

The lease should state who is responsible for paying which utility bills. In some cases, the landlord pays for heat, electricity and water. Sometimes the tenant is responsible for these bills. If this issue is not addressed in the lease, the tenant and landlord should work out their own understanding. It is good to put this agreement in writing, and have it signed by both parties. Information about utility shut-offs is found on page 28.

Single-Metered Residential Buildings
Landlords are permitted to rent residential buildings with a single utility meter, if they comply with all the conditions in the law. (47) The landlord must provide prospective tenants with a notice of the total utility cost for the building by month for the most recent calendar year. (48) The landlord must have a fair and equitable method for dividing the utility bill and billing the tenants. (49) The method for apportioning the bill and billing tenants must be put in writing in all leases. The lease must contain a provision that upon the tenant’s request, the landlord will provide a copy of the actual utility bill for the building along with each portioned utility bill. Also, upon a tenant’s request, the landlord must provide actual utility bills for any time a tenant has received a divided bill. The landlord must keep copies of utility bills for the last two years or from the time the landlord bought the building, whichever is longer.

By September 30 of each year, a landlord with a single-metered residential building who bills for gas and electrical charges must inform tenants in writing of the possible availability of energy assistance from low-income home energy assistance programs. This notice must include the toll-free telephone number of the home energy assistance program. (50)

If a landlord violates this law, it is considered a violation of the landlord’s duty to keep the property fit for its intended use. (51) (See pages 14-18 for a description of tenant remedies.) The law does not govern how tenants occupying a unit, such as roommates, divide the utility bill between themselves. If a landlord interrupts or causes the interruption of utility services, the tenant may recover from the landlord triple damages or $500, whichever is greater, plus reasonable attorney’s fees (see pages 28-29 for information on “utility shutoffs”). (52)

9. MAINTENANCE

According to Minnesota law the landlord is responsible to make sure that the rental unit is:

1) Fit to live in.
2) Kept in reasonable repair.
3) Kept in compliance with state and local health and housing codes.
4) Made reasonably energy efficient to the extent that energy savings will exceed the costs of upgrading efficiency.
These landlord obligations cannot be waived. (53) A tenant who experiences problems with a landlord who is not making necessary repairs or who is not providing a unit that is fit to live in should refer to Section 15 for details on how to resolve such issues.

Some repairs or maintenance duties (like yard work) can become the duty of the tenant if:

1) Both parties agree in writing that the tenant will do the work and
2) The tenant receives adequate consideration (payment), either by a reduction in rent or direct payment from the landlord. (See Section 15 for procedures to be followed in repair disputes.) (54)

10. UNLAWFUL DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY

The tenant must not abuse the rental property and must pay for any damage the tenant causes beyond normal wear and tear. A landlord may sue a tenant for the willful and malicious destruction of residential rental property. The party that wins may recover actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, as well as other damages determined by the court. (55)

11. ALTERATIONS

Ordinarily, a tenant is not allowed to paper or paint walls, resurface floors, dismantle or install permanent fixtures, alter woodwork or carpet, or make other changes without the landlord’s permission. Tenants should speak with a landlord before making any alterations.
12. THE RENT

Payments
Tenants must pay rent on the due date, whether they have a periodic lease or a definite term lease. The due date and amount of rent are set by the lease. If a tenant does not pay the rent, the landlord may take legal action to evict the tenant.

When an apartment is rented to individuals who will live as roommates, 100 percent of the rent is due from the unit. Typically, roommates come to an agreement as to how the rent cost will be divided. However, if a roommate vacates the unit while the lease is still in effect, the rent stated in the lease is still due regardless of who continues to reside in the unit. For example, two people agree to share a unit and to a 50 percent split of the monthly rental cost. If one roommate moves out prior to the end of the lease, unless the landlord agrees otherwise, the remaining roommate will still have to pay 100 percent of the rent.

If a unit is vacated before the lease ends, the leaseholder(s) is still responsible to pay the rent for the full term (if the lease is definite term) or for the full rental period (if it is a periodic lease). The landlord may allow a new tenant to pick up the balance of the lease (known as a sublease).

Late Fees
The rent must be paid on the date it is due. When a tenant is late in paying rent, the landlord has the legal right to start eviction proceedings. (See page 24 for an explanation of eviction proceedings.) If a tenant pays rent late, the lease may require the tenant to pay a late fee. The lease must state how much the late fee will be and when it is due. The late fee must be a reasonable amount that compensates the landlord for actual damages resulting from late payment but is not designed to penalize the tenant. (56)

Raising the Rent
Under a periodic tenancy, a landlord cannot raise the rent unless he or she gives proper written notice. Proper notice is one rental period plus one day. (See page 20 for an explanation of proper notice.) During a definite term lease, rent cannot be raised during the term unless the lease allows for an increase.

13. TENANT'S RIGHT TO PRIVACY

Generally, a landlord may only enter a tenant's unit for a "reasonable business purpose" after making an effort to give the tenant reasonable notice. (57) If a landlord violates this law, the tenant can take the landlord to court to break the lease, recover the damage deposit, and receive a civil penalty of up to $100 per violation. (58)

Examples of a reasonable business purpose include:
1) Showing the unit to prospective tenants. (59)
2) Showing the unit to a prospective buyer or insurance agent. (60)
3) Performing maintenance work. (61)
4) Showing the unit to state or local officials (i.e., fire, housing, health, or building inspectors) inspecting the property. (62)
5) Checking on a tenant causing a disturbance within the unit. (63)
6) Checking on a tenant the landlord believes is violating the lease. (64)
7) Checking to see if a person is staying in the unit who has not signed the lease. (65)
8) Checking the unit when a tenant moves out. (66)
9) Performing housekeeping work in a senior housing unit. A senior housing unit is a building where 80 percent of the tenants are age 55 or older. (67)

A tenant’s right to prior notice may not be waived in any residential lease. (68) However, the landlord may enter the unit without giving prior notice in the following situations:

1) When immediate entry is necessary to prevent injury to property or people due to concerns over maintenance, building security, or law enforcement. (69)
2) When immediate entry is necessary to determine a tenant’s safety. (70)
3) When immediate entry is necessary to comply with state law or local ordinance. (71)

If a landlord enters without giving prior notice and the tenant is not present, the landlord must give written notice to the tenant. (72) If the landlord violates this law, the tenant may recover up to $100 per violation in court. (73)

14. TENANTS MAY SEEK POLICE AND EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE

A landlord cannot evict, penalize, or limit a tenant’s right to call the police or call for emergency assistance in response to a domestic incident or any other situation. (74) Any lease provision that limits this right is illegal and void (75) and a tenant may sue a landlord for $250 or actual damages, whichever is greater, and reasonable attorney’s fees for violations of this law. (76) This law, however, does not prevent a landlord from taking appropriate action against a tenant for breach of lease, disturbing the peace and quiet of other tenants, damage to property, disorderly conduct, etc. (77)

Additionally, while no municipality may require eviction of a tenant or otherwise charge or penalize a landlord for a tenant’s use of police or emergency assistance, this law does not preclude local ordinances from penalizing landlords for failure to abate nuisances or disorderly conduct on rental property. (78)

15. REPAIR PROBLEMS

Minnesota law requires landlords to keep units in reasonable repair. This requirement cannot be waived. (79) However, the landlord and the tenant can agree the tenant will do certain specific repairs or maintenance if:

1) This agreement is in writing and conspicuous (easy to notice) and
2) The tenant receives something adequate in return (for example, a rent reduction or payment from the landlord for the work). (80)
If the tenant has trouble getting the landlord to make necessary repairs in the unit, the tenant may use one or more of the following remedies:

1) File a complaint with the local housing, health, energy or fire inspector - if there is one - and ask that the unit be inspected. If there is no city inspector for the community, write the landlord and request repairs within 14 days. If management fails to make such repairs, the tenant may file a rent escrow action.

2) Place the full rent in escrow with the court, and ask the court to order the landlord to make repairs.

3) Sue the landlord in district court under the Tenant's Remedies Act.

4) Sue in conciliation court or district court for rent abatement (this is the return of part of the rent, or, in extreme cases, all of the rent).

5) Use the landlord's failure to make necessary repairs as a defense to either the landlord's Eviction Action based on nonpayment of rent, or the landlord's lawsuit for unpaid rent. (See page 18 for a further explanation of defenses a tenant may use.)

Let's examine these one at a time.

Calling In An Inspector

If a landlord will not correct a repair problem, a local housing, health, energy, or fire inspector can be called by the tenant. If the inspector finds code violations in the unit, the inspector will give the landlord a certain amount of time to correct them. If the landlord does not make the corrections, the inspector has the authority to serve a summons on the landlord to appear in court. (81)

A landlord may not retaliate (strike back) by filing an eviction notice, increasing rent, or decreasing services because a tenant contacts an inspector. (See page 27 for more information about retaliation.) (82)

Rent Escrow

A rent escrow action is a simplified procedure that permits a tenant to seek relief for housing violations on his or her own without the assistance of an attorney. Tenants may place rent in an escrow account when a landlord will not correct housing violations. Under the rent escrow law, tenants can pay their rent to the court administrator rather than to the landlord, and ask the court to order the landlord to make repairs. (83)

A tenant may wish to speak with a private attorney or Legal Aid attorney for advice before proceeding. The following are the rules and procedures for rent escrow that must be strictly followed: The first step is to either contact the housing inspector or notify the landlord in writing about the violation. As stated earlier, the housing inspector can order the landlord to make repairs if there are violations of the housing code. (84) It is important to contact the inspector and get a copy of the order. If the repairs are not made within the time the inspector orders, a tenant can deposit rent with the court administrator along with a copy of the notice of code violation. (85)

Even if there is no local housing code, Minnesota law says landlords must keep rental property fit to live in and in good repair. (86) If a landlord has failed to maintain the dwelling so it is fit to live in, has not kept the dwelling in good repair, has not complied with state and local health and housing codes, or has violated the written or oral lease, the tenant should notify the landlord in writing. It is very important that the tenant keep a copy of this letter. If the problem is not corrected within 14 days, the tenant can deposit the rent payment with the court administrator along with a copy of the letter that was given to the landlord. (87)

A tenant may file a rent escrow action any time after the requisite notice or inspection orders have expired. To file a rent escrow action, a tenant needs to pay to the court administrator all rent, if any, that is due. (88)
There is a small filing fee, but the administrator can waive the fee if the tenant's income is very low. (89) The tenant must give the administrator a copy of the inspector's order or the tenant's letter to the landlord. The tenant should estimate how much it will cost to make the repairs. The tenant must also give the administrator the landlord's name and address. A court administrator will provide the tenant with a rent escrow petition form. (90)

Once the rent has been deposited with the court, the court administrator will schedule a hearing. The hearing will take place within 10 to 14 days. In most cases, the court will notify the landlord of the hearing by mail. If fixing the housing code violation will cost more than the conciliation court limit (currently $7,500), however, then personal service is required. Someone other than the tenant must give the hearing notice to the landlord. (91) The landlord can take legal action to evict the tenant if the tenant does not deposit the full amount of rent in escrow with the court administrator. (92)

After the hearing, if the tenant proves that a violation exists, the judge may do any of the following:

1) Order the landlord to fix the problem. (93)
2) Allow the tenant to make the repairs and deduct the cost from the rent. (94)
3) Appoint an administrator to collect rent and order repairs. (95)
4) Return all, none, or part of the rent to the tenant. (96)
5) Order that future rent be paid to the court or that the rent be abated (eliminated or reduced), until repairs are made, or that part of the rent be abated or refunded. (97)
6) Fine the landlord. (98)

If the tenant does not prove that there is a housing code violation, or if the tenant does not deposit the full amount of rent with the court, then the money and deposit will be given to the landlord. (99)

A tenant must follow the other terms of the lease while paying rent into escrow. According to Minnesota law, a tenant's rent escrow rights and remedies may not be waived or modified by any oral or written lease or other agreement. (100)

Using the Tenants Remedies Act

Under the Tenants Remedies Act ("TRA"), a tenant can sue for the same items as in a Rent Escrow Action:

1) A health or housing code violation. (101)
2) A violation of the landlord's obligation to keep the rental unit in reasonable repair. (102)
3) A violation of an oral or written rental agreement or lease. (103)

Some non-profits can also sue on behalf of a whole building's tenants with a TRA. A TRA, however, contains more complicated procedures than a Rent Escrow Action.

Before going to court under this act, a tenant should talk to the landlord about the needed repairs and try to get the landlord to fix them. If the landlord does not make the repairs within a reasonable time, the tenant should:
1) Notify the local housing, health, energy, or fire inspector (if there is one). (104)
2) Get a written copy of the inspector’s report. This will describe the problem and allow the landlord a certain number of days to repair it. If no inspector has been used, the tenant must inform the landlord in writing of the repair problem at least 14 days before filing a lawsuit. (105)
3) Wait for the required time to pass, and then, if the repair work has not begun or progressed, bring suit in district court. (106) In court, the tenant must produce evidence that the problem exists (and should submit a copy of the inspector’s report if there is one). The tenant must also explain how the problem can be resolved. (107)

Rent Abatement (return of money)
Before suing for rent abatement (a return of rent paid for a unit that was in disrepair), the tenant should try to get the landlord to make the repairs. Only after it appears the repairs won’t be made, and further requests seem pointless, should the tenant try to bring a legal action for rent abatement. The tenant should then be prepared to prove:

1) The existence of a condition(s) affecting safety, health or the fitness of the dwelling as a place to live. (108)
2) The landlord was notified, knew, or should have known, about the defective condition(s). (109)
3) The landlord failed to repair the defective condition(s), or make adequate repairs, after having a reasonable time to do so. (110)

Although it is unclear under present Minnesota law how the amount of rent reduction (damages or money) should be determined, the tenant may be able to recover either:

1) The difference in value between the condition the rental unit would have been in had the landlord met the landlord’s legal duty to make repairs, and the actual condition of the dwelling without the repairs; or
2) The extent to which the use and enjoyment of the dwelling has been decreased because of the defect.

The tenant may sue for rent reduction in conciliation court if the amount the tenant is seeking is less than the maximum amount the conciliation court has jurisdiction to decide. If the tenant’s claim exceeds the conciliation court maximum, a lawsuit would have to be brought in district court, or the amount the tenant is asking for would have to be reduced to the jurisdictional limit of conciliation court. (Currently, claims of up to $7,500 can be decided in conciliation court.)

Withholding Rent
Tenants may withhold rent if there is a serious repair problem or code violation. Because the tenant may have to defend this action in court, it may be better to use a Rent Escrow Action; however, if the tenant chooses to withhold rent, he/she should follow these steps:

1) Notify the landlord, in writing, of the needed repairs (both parties should keep a copy) and give the landlord a chance to make repairs. (111)
2) Notify the housing, health, energy, or fire inspector (if there is one) if the landlord does not make the repairs. (112)
3) Get a written copy of the inspector’s report. (113)
4) Notify the landlord in writing that all or part of the rent will be withheld until the repairs are made. (114)
If a tenant decides to withhold rent, the tenant should be prepared to defend that action in court. It is very likely that the landlord will begin eviction proceedings. (115) The tenant must not spend the withheld rent money. The tenant must bring the money to court when the tenant is summoned (required) to appear in court. The judge may order the tenant to deposit the rent with the court. Tenants who fail to comply with the judge’s order to deposit rent with the court may not have their defenses heard and can be evicted.

If the court decides the tenant’s argument is valid, it can do any number of things. It may, for instance, order the rent to be deposited with the court until the repairs are made, or it may reduce the rent in an amount equal to the extent of the problem (116). On the other hand, if the tenant loses, the tenant will have to pay all the rent withheld, plus court costs. In addition, the case will be reported to a tenant screening service, affecting future credit and tenant screening checks. Therefore, withholding rent may create more of a risk to the tenant than a Rent Escrow, Tenant Remedies Action, or a rent abatement action.

Defense

A tenant in poorly maintained rental housing can also use the landlord’s failure to make necessary repairs as a defense to:

1) The landlord’s Eviction Action based on nonpayment of rent. (117)
2) The landlord’s lawsuit for unpaid rent. Again, the tenant should be prepared to show that the landlord was notified, or knew, or should have known, about the defective conditions, but failed to repair them despite having a reasonable chance to do so. (118)

16. NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATIONS

A neighborhood organization is an incorporated group in a specific geographical area formed to promote community safety, crime prevention, and housing quality in a nondiscriminatory manner. A neighborhood organization can act on behalf of a tenant with the tenant’s written permission, or it can act on behalf of all tenants in a building with a majority of the tenants’ permission. (119)

In most situations, a neighborhood organization acts much like a tenant. A neighborhood organization can:

1) Call for an inspection of a building about which it has zoning concerns. (120)
2) Take to court the owner of a building in which a housing violation may exist. (121)
3) Take to court the owner of any unoccupied buildings in its area. (122)

If a violation is found to exist, a judge can rule in favor of the tenant(s) and/or the neighborhood organization. Among other options, the court can order the owner to comply with all housing codes, under the court’s jurisdiction, for up to one year. Additionally, the court can rule against the owner of the building for reasonable attorney’s fees, not to exceed $500. (123)

The court may appoint a neighborhood organization as the designated administrator for a building as a result of legal action. When this happens, the administrator may collect rent, contract for materials and services to remedy violations, and perform other duties as outlined by the court. (124)
17. UNINHABITABLE OR CONDEMNED BUILDINGS

A landlord may not accept rent or a security deposit for residential rental property condemned or declared unfit for human habitation by a state or local authority if the tenancy started after the premises were condemned or declared unfit for human habitation. By violating this law, the landlord is liable to the tenant for actual damages and three times the amount of all money collected from the tenant after the date the property is condemned or declared unfit by state or local officials. This includes court costs and attorney’s fees. Actual damages can include items such as moving expenses, temporary lodging and other costs. (125) If a building is condemned, a landlord must return the tenant’s security deposit within five days after the tenant moves from the building, unless the tenant’s willful, malicious or irresponsible conduct caused the condemnation. (126)

Minnesota law states that if a building is destroyed or becomes uninhabitable or unfit to live in through no fault of the tenant, the tenant may vacate the rental unit. In that situation, the tenant is not required to pay further rent to the landlord. (127) If the building has not been condemned, however, a tenant who relies upon this law to break a lease may run the risk that a court will not agree that the building was uninhabitable. The tenant may want to consider using the remedies discussed on pages 14-18 rather than to vacate the rental unit without proper notice.

18. PROPER NOTICE

When the landlord or tenant ends the tenancy, he or she must abide by both the terms of the lease and by state law. The notice requirements for periodic and definite term tenancies differ.

For Periodic Tenancies

If there is no provision in the lease stating how much advance notice must be given to end the tenancy, the law provides that written notice must be received by the other party at least one full rental period before the last day of the tenancy. This means the day before the last rent payment is due. (128)

For example, if a tenant who pays rent on the first day of each month (in a month-to-month periodic tenancy) wishes to leave at the end of June, the tenant must inform the landlord in writing on or before May 31. This is because May 31 is one day before the June rental period begins. No matter when during June the tenant actually leaves, the tenant is responsible for the entire month’s rent. If the tenant or landlord misses the proper notice deadline - even by a day - the notice is void (no good) and the tenancy continues as if no notice was given.

The effective date of the notice is the date it is received. If the notice is mailed May 31, it will not be received by the other party until at least June 1, and will be ineffective to end the tenancy by June 30. The proper notice provision also applies to the landlord. If the landlord wants to end the tenancy, he or she must give the tenant advance written notice the day before that last rental period begins. If the landlord misses the deadline, the notice is defective and the tenancy is automatically extended for another month. The landlord must provide the tenant a second proper, written notice to vacate the rental property at least one day before the last rental period begins. (129)

For Definite Term Tenancies

Procedures for ending a definite term tenancy are generally written into the lease. Tenants with a definite term lease have to pay for the entire term no matter when they leave, unless the landlord agrees to accept new tenants who would take over the remaining payments. But some term leases have provisions allowing the tenant to “break” the lease. Often in such cases, the tenant is required to pay a “breaklease” fee - a sum of money and/or the tenant’s security deposit.

Some definite term leases spell out what kind of notice is needed to end the tenancy when the lease ends. Typically this is a written notice presented 30 to 60 days before the lease ends. Often such a requirement is part of an automatic renewal provision. Automatic renewal means if the tenant does not give notice he or she can be held to an additional period of time - for example, one or two months beyond the original term of the lease.

But if the automatic renewal is for an extra two months or more, the landlord must give the tenant written notice and call the tenant’s attention to the automatic renewal provision. If the landlord does not, the automatic renewal provision cannot be enforced. The renewal notice must be given either by personal service or by registered or certified mail. It must be received by the tenant 15 to 30 days before the tenant has to give the landlord written notice to vacate. (130) The tenant may not use the security deposit as the last month’s rent, except that the tenant may withhold rent for the last month of a contract for deed cancellation period or mortgage foreclosure redemption period. (131) These terms are defined on page 6.

Holdover Tenants

If there is no provision in the lease about what happens when the lease ends (for example, nothing is said about converting the tenancy to a month-to-month tenancy), the lease simply expires and the tenant becomes a “holdover tenant,” and the lease is renewed on a month-to-month basis. (132) Some leases in rural areas (outside of a city) are renewed for a full term. At this point, unless the landlord agrees to continue the tenancy or a new lease is signed, the landlord can start eviction proceedings at any time and without notice. (See page 24 for laws covering eviction.) However, once the landlord accepts a rent payment from the tenant after the tenancy term runs out, then the tenancy is automatically renewed for another rental period and it becomes a periodic (usually month-to-month) tenancy.

Section 8 and Public Housing Programs

Section 8 is a federal rent assistance program that provides rent subsidy payments for low-income families renting privately owned housing. Under Section 8, a monthly rent subsidy payment is made to the owner and the tenant pays about 30 percent of the tenant’s income toward rent. For more information on Section 8 and other housing subsidy programs, contact the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, (612) 370-3000, or the local public housing authority listed in the telephone directory.

19. RIGHT OF VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC ABUSE TO TERMINATE LEASE

A victim of domestic violence who fears imminent domestic abuse against the tenant or the tenant’s minor children if the tenant or the tenant’s minor children remain in the leased premises may terminate a residential lease agreement under certain conditions. The tenant must provide advance written notice to the landlord stating that:

1) The tenant fears imminent domestic abuse from a person named in an order for protection or no contact order (133) and
2) The tenant needs to terminate the tenancy (134) and
3) The specific date the tenancy will terminate. (135)

The law requires that the advance written notice must be delivered before the termination of the tenancy by mail, fax, or in person, and must include the order for protection or no contact order. The landlord is prohibited from disclosing information provided in this written notification and may not enter the information into any shared database or provide it to any person or entity. However, the landlord may use the information as evidence in an eviction proceeding, action for unpaid rent or damages arising out of the tenancy, claims under section 504B.178 with the tenant’s permission, or as otherwise required by law. (136)

The tenant is responsible for the rent payment for the full month in which the tenancy terminates and an additional amount equal to one month’s rent. (137) This amount must be paid on or before the tenancy terminates. In the event that the tenant owes the landlord rent or other amounts for a period before the termination of the lease, the tenant will continue to owe that amount to the landlord. (138) If there are multiple tenants on the lease, the lease will continue for the remaining tenants. (139)
20. THREE-DAY NOTICE DURING WINTER

Tenants who vacate their units between November 15 and April 15 must tell their landlord they are vacating at least three days before they move. This allows the landlord time to take steps to make sure the pipes don’t freeze. A tenant’s failure to notify the landlord is a misdemeanor. Exceptions to this requirement are cases where the unit’s pipes are not subject to freezing or where the tenant is leaving on the day the tenancy is supposed to end anyway. (140)

21. REFUND OF THE SECURITY DEPOSIT

At the end of the tenancy, a landlord must return a tenant’s security deposit plus simple, non-compounded interest, (141) or give the tenant a written explanation as to why the deposit (or any part of the deposit) will not be returned. The landlord must do this within 21 days after the day the tenancy ends, provided that the tenant has given the landlord a forwarding address. If a tenant has to leave because the building is condemned, the landlord must return the deposit within five days after the tenant leaves, and after receipt of the tenant’s new address or delivery instructions (unless the condemnation was due to the tenant’s willful, malicious or irresponsible conduct). (142) If the landlord does not return the deposit or return an explanation in the time allowed, the landlord must pay the tenant a penalty equal to the amount withheld and interest and also pay the tenant the amount of the deposit and interest wrongfully withheld. (143) Minnesota law allows a landlord to withhold from a security deposit only the amount necessary for unpaid rent (144), damages to the rental unit beyond ordinary wear and tear (145), or other money the tenant owes to the landlord under an agreement (e.g. water bills). (146)

When a landlord’s interest in the property ends (for example, because of death, foreclosure, or contract for deed cancellation), the security deposit must be transferred to either the new owner or returned to the tenant. This must be done within 60 days after the current landlord’s interest in the property ends or when the new landlord is required to return the security deposit under the rules discussed earlier, whichever is the earlier time. (147)

If a landlord does not return or transfer the deposit, the court may penalize the landlord $200 for each deposit not returned or transferred. (148)

Interest

Interest begins on the first day of the month following the full payment of the security deposit. Interest runs to the last day of the month in which the landlord returns the deposit. When a tenant has sued to recover a withheld deposit, interest would run to the day the judgment is entered in favor of the tenant. (149)

Taking the Matter to Court

If a tenant does not get the deposit back, or is dissatisfied with the landlord’s explanation for keeping part or all of the deposit, the tenant can take the matter to court (this is usually the conciliation court in the county where the rental property is located). (150) There, it is up to the landlord to justify his or her actions. The Attorney General’s Office has prepared a brochure entitled Conciliation Court: A User’s Guide to Small Claims Court, which offers useful tips on how to file a claim and proceed in conciliation court.

If the judge decides the landlord acted in “bad faith,” the tenant can be awarded up to $200 in punitive damages. If a landlord has failed to provide a written explanation, the landlord must return the withheld... deposit within two weeks after the tenant has filed a complaint in court, or the court will presume the landlord is acting in "bad faith." (151)

The law generally forbids tenants to use their security deposits to pay the rent. Those tenants who do may be taken to court and may have to pay the landlord the amount of the rent withheld plus a penalty. However, before the landlord can take a tenant to court, the landlord must give the tenant a written demand for the rent and a notice that it is illegal to use the security deposit for the last rent payment. The one exception to the prohibition on withholding rent is that a tenant may withhold rent for the last month of a contract for deed cancellation period or mortgage foreclosure redemption period. (152)
22. Housing Courts

Housing courts in Ramsey (651-266-8285) and Hennepin counties (612-348-5186) hear and decide criminal and civil cases related to residential rental housing. This includes, for example, claims for rent abatement, rent escrow proceedings, eviction actions, and actions for violations of state, county or city housing codes. Housing courts ensure housing claims are brought before a single, trained referee. This is to encourage consistent decisions and prompt compliance with Minnesota’s housing laws.

Ramsey and Hennepin County District Courts appoint a referee to hold hearings and make recommended decisions. After the hearing in each case, the referee’s recommended findings and orders are sent to the district court judge. These become the findings and orders of the court when confirmed by the district judge. The landlord or tenant can ask the district court judge to review any order or finding recommended by the referee. The person who is requesting the review must file and serve (provide to the other party) a notice of the recommended order or finding. This must occur within 10 days. This notice must explain the reasons for requesting a review, and state the specific parts of the recommended findings or orders that are disputed. After receiving this notice, a time for the review hearing will be set. After the hearing the judge will decide whether to accept, reject or change the referee’s recommended decision.

Hennepin and Ramsey county landlords and tenants are encouraged to use the housing courts to resolve housing related disputes that they cannot work out themselves.

23. Eviction

Eviction Actions (Unlawful Detainer)

Landlords cannot forcibly remove tenants. In order to evict a tenant, a landlord must first bring an “Eviction Action,” or what used to be called an “Unlawful Detainer” action against the tenant. This is a legal proceeding conducted in district court. To bring such an action the landlord must have a legitimate reason. According to state law, legitimate reasons can be nonpayment of rent, other breach of the lease, or cases where the tenant has refused to leave after notice to vacate has been properly served and the tenancy’s last day has passed. (153) In general, if a tenant does not pay rent on the day it is due, the landlord may immediately bring an Eviction Action unless the lease provides otherwise.

After a contract for deed cancellation or mortgage foreclosure, the new owner of the building can also evict a tenant; provided that if the tenant leased the property during the contract for deed cancellation period or mortgage foreclosure redemption period under a lease beginning after the date the mortgage or contract for deed was signed and prior to the expiration of the time for redemption or termination, the tenant received proper notice to vacate. The law requires two month’s written notice to vacate no sooner than one month after the expiration of the contract for deed cancellation period or mortgage foreclosure redemption period (these terms are defined on page 6); or two month’s written notice to vacate no later than the expiration of the cancellation or redemption period. This second notice option requires that the tenant be held harmless for breaching the lease if the mortgage is redeemed or contract reinstated. (154)
With proper written notice, a landlord can end a month-to-month tenancy unless the landlord is limiting a tenant’s right to call the police for emergency assistance or retaliating or discriminating against the tenant. (See pages 14, 27 and 31 for definitions of these terms.) Definite term leases can only be ended according to the notice specified in the lease or if there has been a significant breach of the lease and the lease allows eviction for breach.

There are a number of steps both landlords and tenants must take in an Eviction Action:

1) The landlord must file a complaint against the tenant in district court. At least seven days before the court date the landlord must have someone else serve the tenant with a summons ordering the tenant to appear in court. (155)

2) A court hearing must take place within seven to fourteen days after the court issues the summons. At the hearing, both the tenant and the landlord will be asked to give their sides of the story. (156)

3) The judge will then deliver a decision. If the judge decides the tenant has no legal reason for refusing to leave or pay the rent, the judge will order the tenant to vacate the rental unit. If necessary, the judge will order a law enforcement officer to force the tenant out. If the tenant can show immediate eviction will cause substantial hardship, the court shall allow the tenant a reasonable period of time (up to one week) in which to move. A tenant may not seek or receive a delay based on hardship if the tenant is causing a nuisance or seriously endangering the safety of other residents, their property, or the landlord’s property. (157)

If the Eviction Action has been brought only because the tenant owes rent, and the landlord wins, the tenant can still “pay and stay.” To pay and stay, the tenant must pay the rent that is past due (in arrears), plus interest (if charged), plus a $5 attorney fee if an attorney represented the landlord, and finally, any “costs of the action.” Costs of the action includes the filing fee (now about $250 - $255) plus the process server fee, plus witness fees if one was subpoenaed (called) for trial; costs do not include other legal or similar fees for handling/processing the case as those are capped at $5.

The court may give the tenant up to a week to pay the court costs. If a tenant has paid the landlord or the court the amount of rent owed, but is unable to pay the interest, costs and attorney’s fees, the court may permit the tenant to pay these amounts during the time period the court delays issuing a Writ of Recovery (eviction order). (158)

If the Eviction Action has been brought because the tenant has withheld the rent due to disrepair, the judge may order the tenant to deposit the rent with the court. If the tenant wins, the judge may order that the rent be abated (reduced), in part or completely. (See page 17 for a description of withholding rent.)

Following a motion by the tenant, the court may find that the landlord’s eviction case is without merit. The judge may then decide to expunge (remove) the eviction case from the court’s record. (159) See page 8 for a more complete discussion of expungement. If a tenant screening service (see page 7 for an explanation of tenant reports) knows that an eviction case file has been expunged, the tenant screening service must remove any reference to that file from data it maintains or disseminates. (160)

It should be understood that only a law enforcement officer can physically evict a tenant. The landlord cannot. A Writ of Recovery - which is issued at the time the decision is handed down - must be posted on the premises at least 24 hours before the actual eviction. The law enforcement officer can show up to perform the eviction any time after the 24 hours have expired. (161)

APPENDIX E-25
A landlord may not obtain a judgment for unpaid rent in an Eviction Action. To obtain a judgment for unpaid rent, a landlord must bring a separate action in Conciliation Court or District Court.

Storage of Personal Property
When the law enforcement officer performs the eviction, the tenant’s remaining property must either be stored on the premises or placed in storage in a bonded warehouse or other suitable storage place. (162)

In cases where the tenant’s property will be stored on the premises, the landlord must prepare an inventory that is signed and dated in the presence of a law enforcement officer acting pursuant to a court order. A copy of the inventory must be mailed to the tenant at the tenant’s last known address, or to an address provided by the tenant. (163) The inventory must include the following:

1) A listing of the items of personal property, and a description of the condition of that property. (164)
2) The date, the signature of the landlord, and the name and telephone number of the person authorized to release the property. (165)
3) The name and badge number of the police officer. (166)

The officer must keep a copy of the inventory. The landlord must remove, store and take care of the tenant’s property. The landlord is liable for damages to, or loss of, the tenant’s personal property. The landlord should notify the tenant of the date and approximate time the officer is scheduled to remove the tenant and the tenant’s personal property from the premises. The notice must be sent by first class mail. The landlord should also make a good faith effort to notify the tenant by telephone, explicitly informing the tenant that the tenant and the tenant’s property will be removed from the premises if the tenant has not vacated by the time specified in the notice. (167) According to Minnesota law, this provision may not be waived or modified by any oral or written lease or other agreement. (168)

To Get the Property Back
If the tenant’s personal property is stored on the premises, the tenant may contact the landlord in writing to demand that the property be returned. The landlord does not have a lien on the property. If the tenant’s property is stored away from the premises (at a bonded warehouse or other suitable storage place) the landlord has a lien (legal claim) on the tenant’s personal property for the reasonable costs of removing, transporting, and storing the property plus court costs of the Eviction Action. The landlord can keep the property in such a circumstance until those expenses are paid. (169)

Whether the tenant’s property is stored on or away from the premises, to get the property back the tenant does not have to pay any unpaid rent, late charges, etc. The landlord can sue the tenant in court for these costs.

Eviction for Illegal Activities
Every oral or written residential lease now includes a requirement that the following activities will not be allowed on the premises: making, selling, possessing, purchasing or allowing illegal drugs; illegally using or possessing firearms; allowing stolen property; or allowing prostitution or related activities. (170) A tenant violating this law loses the right to the rental property. An Eviction Action filed by a landlord for these reasons will be heard within five to seven days (rather than the usual 7 to 14 days.) (171)

If illegal drugs or contraband valued at more than $100 are seized from the property, the landlord, upon being notified, (172) has 15 days to file to evict the tenant or ask the county attorney to do so. (173)
Landlords receiving notice of a second such occurrence involving the same tenant may forfeit their property unless they have filed to evict the tenant or asked the county attorney to do so. (174) Forfeiture of the property may occur if the value of the controlled substance is $1,000 or more, or there have been two previous controlled substance seizures involving the same tenant. (175)

The tenant has a defense against eviction if the tenant has no knowledge of, or reason to know about, the drugs or contraband, or could not prevent them from being brought onto the premises. (176)

The landlord has a defense if the landlord was not notified of the seizure or had made every reasonable attempt to evict a tenant or to assign the county attorney that right. If the property is owned by a parent of the offender, the rental property cannot be forfeited simply based on the owner’s knowledge of unlawful drug use unless the parent actively participated in, or knowingly allowed the unlawful activity, or the rental property was purchased with unlawful drug proceeds. (177)

Seizure of Property

Unlawful sale or possession of illegal drugs or unlawful sale of alcohol within a building is now a public nuisance. (178) A city attorney, county attorney, or the attorney general may file an abatement action against the landlord, and if the nuisance is not corrected, ask the court to seize the building. (179)

24. RETALIATION

A landlord may not evict a tenant or end a tenancy in retaliation for the tenant’s “good faith” attempt to enforce the tenant’s rights, nor can a landlord respond to such an attempt by raising the tenant’s rent, cutting services, or otherwise adversely changing the rental terms. For instance, if a tenant has reported the landlord to a governmental agency for violating health, safety, housing, or building codes, the landlord cannot try to “get even” by evicting the tenant.

If, within 90 days of a tenant’s action, the landlord starts an eviction action or gives the tenant a notice to vacate, the law presumes that the landlord is retaliating. It will then be up to the landlord to prove the eviction is not retaliatory. However, if the landlord’s notice to vacate comes more than 90 days after a tenant exercises the tenant’s rights, it will be up to the tenant to prove the eviction is retaliatory. These provisions also apply to oral rental agreements. (180)

25. UNLAWFUL EXCLUSIONS AND PROPERTY CONFISCATION

It is a misdemeanor for a landlord to physically lock out a tenant from the tenant’s rental unit or otherwise prevent a tenant from living there (for example, by removing locks, doors, or windows from the rental unit) without a court order. (181) A tenant who has been unlawfully locked out may petition the district court to get back in. The petition must:

1) Give a description of the rental unit. (182)
2) Give the owner’s name. (183)
3) State the facts that make the lockout or exclusion unlawful. (184)
4) Request that the tenant be given possession of the unit. (185)
If the court agrees with the tenant, it will order the sheriff to help the tenant get back in. If the court decides the landlord knew or should have known that the lockout or other exclusion was unlawful, the court can order the landlord to pay the tenant up to triple damages or $500, whichever is greater, plus reasonable attorney's fees. (186) Also, a landlord cannot cart away or keep a tenant's belongings for nonpayment of rent or other charges. (187)

26. UTILITY SHUTOFFS

A landlord may not intentionally shut off a tenant's utilities. To do so is a misdemeanor. (188)

If a landlord has unlawfully cut off utility services, a tenant can sue the landlord in court to recover triple damages or $500, whichever is greater, plus reasonable attorney's fees. However, a tenant may recover only actual damages if:

1) In the beginning, the tenant failed to notify the landlord of the interruption of utilities. (189)
2) The landlord, once notified, had the services reinstated within a reasonable time or made a good faith effort to do so. (190)
3) The cutoff was necessary to repair or correct equipment or to protect the health and safety of the tenants. (191)

Tenants, finding their utility service cut off, should notify the landlord immediately. If service is not restored within a reasonable time, they should notify a housing inspector (if there is one available) and may bring an emergency action in court if the landlord unlawfully cuts off utilities. (192)

Loss of Essential Services

When a landlord has contracted to pay for utilities but fails to pay and the utility company gives notice that services will be cut off, or if the utilities are shut off, the tenant or a group of tenants may pay to have the services continued or reconnected and may deduct that payment from their rent. But the tenant(s) must follow certain steps.

The tenant must notify the landlord either orally or in writing of the tenant's intention to pay the utility if, after 48 hours, the landlord fails to pay. Under certain circumstances, the notice period can be shorter. For example, if the furnace stops in the middle of winter because of a lack of fuel that the landlord was supposed to provide, less than a 48-hour notice is considered reasonable. If the landlord is notified orally, written notice must be mailed or delivered to the landlord within 24 hours after the oral notice. (193)

If the landlord has not paid the natural gas, electricity, or water utility, and the service remains disconnected, the tenant may pay the amount due for the most recent billing period. (194) If the disconnected service is heating oil or propane, and the service has not been reconnected, the tenant may order and pay for a one-month supply. (195)

In a residential building with less than five units, one of the tenants may take responsibility for the gas or electric bill and establish an account in the tenant's name. Then, each month the tenant would provide receipts to the landlord and deduct from the next rental payment the amount paid to restore and pay for these utility services. By law, any payments made to a utility provider in this manner must be considered the same as rent paid to the landlord. Payments made for water, heating oil, or propane may also be deducted from rent. (196)
Utilities include natural gas, water, electricity, home heating oil and propane. (197) This law applies to all utility providers, including municipalities and cooperatives that in most cases are not regulated by the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission. (198) The utility cannot collect payment from the tenant for the landlord’s past bills. Also, the utility may not refuse service to a tenant due to the landlord’s failure to pay past bills. (199)

27. COLD WEATHER RULE

The Minnesota Legislature developed the Cold Weather Rule to protect a tenant (or homeowner) from having their heat source permanently disconnected in winter (October 15 through April 15) if they are unable to pay their utility bills. (200) The Cold Weather Rule is implemented by the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission. The Cold Weather Rule does not prohibit shut-offs but does provide that a utility may not disconnect and must reconnect a customer whose household income is at or below 50% of the state median income if the customer enters into and makes reasonably timely payments under a mutually acceptable payment agreement. Customers whose household income is above 50% of the state median income also have the right to a payment agreement to prevent disconnection or get reconnected. (201) The Cold Weather Rule applies to all natural gas and electric utilities; it does not apply to delivered fuels, such as fuel oil, propane, and wood.

The Cold Weather Rule does not prevent a landlord from evicting a tenant or refusing to renew a lease that expires during this “cold weather” season.

Disconnection Notice
The Cold Weather Rule requires a utility company to notify its customers in writing before it disconnects their heat. The notice must be in easy-to-understand language and must contain the amount due, the date of the scheduled disconnection, the reasons for disconnection, and options to avoid disconnection. (202) A regulated public utility must notify a customer of disconnection at least seven working days in advance. (203) An unregulated utility—such as a cooperative or municipal utility—must notify a customer of disconnection at least 15 days in advance. (204) A disconnection may not generally happen on a Friday, Saturday, or Sunday, a holiday or the day before a holiday, while an appeal is pending, or after the close of business on the scheduled day of disconnection.

Payment Plans
A utility company must enter into payment agreements all year round, not just during the winter months. (205) Any residential customer, regardless of income or account status, may qualify for a payment agreement.

If you receive a disconnection notice or you know you cannot afford your utility bills, you must work directly with your utility company to set up a payment plan. Your utility company must consider your financial circumstances, as well as any “extenuating” circumstances, when it makes your payment plan. (206) If you agree to a payment plan, you must keep it. If your circumstances change and you can no longer afford your payment plan, you must contact your utility company and negotiate a new payment plan.

During the winter months, the Cold Weather Rule guarantees a reduced payment plan for consumers who meet certain guidelines. If you receive energy assistance or your household earns less than 50 percent of the state’s median income, a public utility company cannot ask you to pay more than ten percent of your monthly household income toward current and past utility bills. (207) A cooperative or municipal utility can ask you to pay more than ten percent of your monthly household income, but it must consider your financial circumstances. (208) Household income includes the income of all residents in your household but does not include any amount received for energy assistance. The state’s median household income is $40,758 for a family of four.

Your Right to Appeal

If you and your utility company cannot agree on a reasonable payment plan, you have the right to appeal.

If you are a customer of a public utility, you may appeal to the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission. (209) You must ask your utility company for an appeal form. Once you receive the appeal form, you must send it to the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission within seven working days. (210) After it receives your written appeal, the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission will review it and issue a decision within 20 working days. (211) During the appeal process, your utility company cannot disconnect your heat; if you have already been disconnected, your utility company must reconnect your service. (212) If your appeal is denied, your utility company must notify you in writing at least seven days before it disconnects your service. (213)

If you are the customer of a cooperative or municipal utility, you must appeal directly to your utility company before you are disconnected. (214)

Additional Resources

If you have questions about the Cold Weather Rule, contact your local utility or call the Consumer Affairs Office of the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission at (651) 296-0406 or 1-800-657-3782. If you meet low income guidelines, you may also be eligible for energy assistance funds. Your utility company or the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission can help you get in touch with these programs.

28. TENANT’S RIGHT TO A TAX CREDIT (CRP)

Minnesota law gives tenants (depending on income and amount of rent paid) a partial refund for the property taxes they pay indirectly through their rent. (215) To be eligible a tenant must rent a property tax-paying unit. If the tenant is renting from the government, a private college, some other person, or other entity not required to pay property taxes or make payments in lieu of taxes, the tenant is not eligible for a refund.

To claim the credit, the tenant must file with the Minnesota Department of Revenue a property tax refund return form (M-1RP) and include with it a “certificate of rent paid” ("CRP") that the landlord must supply to the person who is a renter on December 31. If the renter moves prior to December 31, the owner or managing agent may give the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to a forwarding address if one has been provided by the renter. The certificate must be made available to the renter before February 1 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. (216) If there is a disagreement between the tenant and the landlord over how much rent was paid, or if the landlord fails to provide a certificate of rent paid form, a “Rent Paid Affidavit” can be requested from the Minnesota Department of Revenue. The property tax refund return for the previous year must be filed with the Department of Revenue by August 15. Questions may be directed to the department at (651) 296-3781. 29. DISCRIMINATION

According to Minnesota law, landlords cannot legally refuse to sell, rent, or lease housing to potential tenants, or have different rental terms, on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, sexual or affectional orientation, disability, or reliance on public assistance. (217) There is one exception to this: an owner living in a one-family unit may refuse to rent part of the premises on the basis of sex, marital status, sexual or affectional orientation, disability, or reliance on public assistance. (218)

Likewise, a landlord cannot discriminate against tenants by decreasing services that have been promised in the lease. (219) It is also illegal for landlords to discriminate against people with children (this is also called “familial status”). However, there are some important exceptions to this prohibition. Landlords can refuse to rent to persons with children when:

1) The vacancy is in an owner-occupied house, duplex, triplex or fourplex (220) or
2) The purpose of the building is to provide housing for elderly persons. (221)

To qualify for the second exemption the housing must:

1) Be provided under a state or federal program that is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons. (222)
2) Be intended for and solely occupied by persons 62 years of age or older (223) or
3) Be intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit. At least 80 percent of the units must be occupied by one person 55 years of age or older per unit, and there must be the publication of, and adherence to, policies and procedures that demonstrate an intent to provide such housing. (224)

Additionally, a landlord is unable to discriminate against a tenant who requires a service dog. Every totally or partially blind, physically disabled, or deaf person who has a service dog, or who obtains a service dog while renting, shall be entitled to full and equal access to all housing accommodations. Furthermore, the tenant shall not be required to pay extra compensation to the landlord in order to have a service dog reside in the unit; however, the tenant shall be liable for any damage done to the premises by such service dog. (225)

Complaints about discrimination may be filed with the Minnesota Department of Human Rights, 190 East 5th Street, Suite 700, St. Paul, MN 55101; (651) 296-5663, or toll free, 1-800-657-3704. In Minneapolis, St. Paul, and some other locations, such complaints may also be filed with municipal civil or human rights departments. (226) Tenants may also wish to consult a private attorney about discrimination.

30. HANDICAPPED-ACCESSIBLE UNIT

Minnesota law requires that a disabled person, or a family with a disabled family member, must be given priority to handicapped-equipped rental housing. This law provides that if a non-disabled person, or a family that does not include a disabled person, is living in a handicapped-equipped unit, the owner must offer to rent a non-handicapped-equipped apartment to that person or family if:

1) A disabled person or a family with a disabled family member who will reside in the apartment has signed a rental agreement for the handicapped-equipped apartment. (227)
2) A similar non-handicapped-equipped apartment in the same rental housing complex is available at the same rent. (228)

The law requires that the owner must inform non-disabled people and families that do not include a disabled family member of the possibility that they may have to move to a non-handicapped-equipped rental unit. This information must be provided before an agreement is made to rent a handicapped-equipped unit. (229)

31. LANDLORD DISCLOSURE

Landlords must provide their tenants, in writing, with the name and address of:

1) The person authorized to manage the premises. (230)
2) The owner of the premises or the owner’s authorized agent (the person or entity that will be receiving any notices or demands). (231)

The addresses given must be a street address, not a post office box number because it must be an address at which papers can be served (handed to the recipient). The disclosure can be inserted in the lease or can be put in some other written form. It must also be printed or typed and posted by the landlord in some clearly visible place on the premises. (232)

The disclosure is important because the tenant must be able to contact the landlord or agent when repairs are needed or other problems arise. Also, a landlord cannot take any legal action against a tenant to recover rent or to evict the tenant unless the disclosure has been given. (233)

Tenants who move out of a rental unit, or sublet their unit without giving the owner 30 days’ written notice, lose the protection of the disclosure law. (234)

32. SUBLEASING

Subleasing means another person “takes over” a tenant’s unit by moving into the unit, paying rent and doing all the things the original tenant agreed to do under the rental agreement. If nothing in the lease prohibits subletting, then the tenant can sublet. This means that the new tenant takes over the old tenant’s duties, including paying the rent. It is best to get these agreements in writing and signed by both parties. Still, if the new tenant does not pay the rent, or if the new tenant damages the unit or leaves before the lease is up, the original tenant will be responsible to the landlord for any damage or unpaid rent. The original tenant can sue the new tenant for these costs. Most leases say the tenant can sublet only if the landlord agrees to it. If the tenant and landlord agree to sublet, it is best to get this agreement in writing.

33. ABANDONED PROPERTY

If law enforcement has performed an eviction, the storage of a tenant’s personal property is explained on page 26 of this booklet. Otherwise, the personal property a tenant leaves behind after moving out must first be stored by the landlord. The landlord can charge the tenant all moving and storage costs, however, the tenant can get his or her property back before paying the moving and storage costs. If the tenant refuses to pay the moving and storage costs, the landlord can sue the tenant to recover those costs. (235)
Sixty days after the landlord has either received a notice of abandonment, or it has become reasonably apparent that the unit has been abandoned, the landlord may sell or get rid of the property in whatever way the landlord wishes. The landlord must make a reasonable effort, however, to contact the tenant at least two weeks before the sale of the items, to let the tenant know they are being sold or disposed of. The landlord must do this either by personally giving the tenant a written notice of the sale or by sending the notice by certified mail (return receipt requested) to the tenant’s last known address or likely living quarters if that is known by the landlord. The landlord must also post a notice of the sale in a clearly visible place on the premises for at least two weeks before the sale.

The landlord may use a reasonable amount of the money from the sale to pay for the costs of removing and storing the property, back rent, damages caused by the tenant, and other debts the tenant owes the landlord under an agreement. Money earned in excess of the landlord’s costs belongs to the tenant, if the tenant has written and asked for it. The landlord may not withhold the tenant’s property pending payment of any rent that may be owing. If the tenant has asked for the property back before the 60 day waiting period ends, the landlord must give the property back. (236)

The landlord must return the tenant's property within 24 hours after the tenant’s written demand, or 48 hours (not counting weekends and holidays) if the landlord has moved the tenant’s property somewhere other than the building. If the landlord or the landlord’s agent does not allow the tenant to reclaim the property after the tenant has written for it, the tenant may sue for a penalty not to exceed $300 plus any damages the tenant suffered plus reasonable attorney’s fees. (237)

34. EXPANDED DEFINITION OF “TENANT”

Caretakers and other individuals who exchange their services (instead of money) for rent are considered tenants. As such, these individuals are entitled to all rights and remedies provided to tenants by law. (238)

35. SMOKING IN COMMON AREAS

Minnesota’s Clean Indoor Air Act prohibits smoking in all common areas within apartment buildings. (239)

36. MANUFACTURED HOME PARK RESIDENTS

Manufactured home owners who rent lots in manufactured home parks have special rights and responsibilities under Minnesota law. (240) The Minnesota Attorney General’s Office publishes a brochure detailing these rights and responsibilities. To receive The Manufactured Home Parks Handbook, contact the Attorney General’s Office as listed on page 44.

Landlords and Tenants: Rights and Responsibilities
To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees the Housing Choice Voucher Program is in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA.

A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under Housing Choice Voucher Program you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

If you are receiving assistance under Housing Choice Voucher Program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under Housing Choice Voucher Program solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

Metro HRA may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

1 Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

2 Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.
If Metro HRA chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, Metro HRA may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, Metro HRA must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Metro HRA must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Metro HRA may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, Metro HRA may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Metro HRA may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

1. You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.

2. You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.

3. You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.
Metro HRA will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

Metro HRA’s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and METRO HRA must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

Metro HRA can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from Metro HRA must be in writing, and Metro HRA must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Metro HRA may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to Metro HRA as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if Metro HRA asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by Metro HRA with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.

- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault; or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.

- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.

- Any other statement or evidence that Metro HRA has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Metro HRA does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Metro HRA receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator, Metro HRA has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Metro HRA does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

Metro HRA must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Metro HRA must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Metro HRA (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Metro HRA must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Metro HRA, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Metro HRA to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Metro HRA needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires Metro HRA or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit Metro HRA's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Metro HRA cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if Metro HRA can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

1. Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
2. Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.
If Metro HRA can demonstrate the above, Metro HRA should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Non-Compliance with The Requirements of This Notice

You may report a covered housing provider’s violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with Minneapolis HUD Field Office.

For Additional Information

You may view a copy of HUD’s final VAWA rule at

Additionally, Metro HRA must make a copy of HUD’s VAWA regulations available to you if you ask to see them.

For questions regarding VAWA, please contact Metropolitan Council HRA at 651-602-1428.

Local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
CERTIFICATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING, AND ALTERNATE DOCUMENTATION

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA") protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

1. A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of "domestic violence," "dating violence," "sexual assault," or "stalking" in HUD's regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.

2. A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or

3. At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

Mid-Minnesota Legal Assistance (MMLA) is the primary provider of general civil legal services to low-income and elderly people in 20 central Minnesota counties. It also provides legal services to elderly persons in two additional counties. MMLA provides these services through its three member corporations: the Legal Aid Society of Minneapolis (LASM), St. Cloud Area Legal Services, and Western Minnesota Legal Services. This structure allows MMLA to staff three offices in Minneapolis, as well as offices in St. Cloud, Cambridge and Willmar. The oldest corporate component of MMLA—the Legal Aid Society of Minneapolis—was founded in 1913. LASM is also the state-designated Protection and Advocacy agency for persons in Minnesota with developmental disabilities, mental illness and other disabilities. And it is the state Client Assistance Program that protects the rights of those seeking services from the vocational rehabilitation system.

In order to reach and serve certain disadvantaged client populations, MMLA has also created several special projects: the Seniors Law Project, the Youth Law Project, the Minnesota Disability Law Center, the Housing Discrimination Law Project, and the Family Farm Law Project. And, with its Community Legal Education Project, MMLA expands its poverty law outreach statewide, distributing newsletters, fact sheets, videos, and self-help materials, and conducting training and education sessions. Finally, MMLA’s statewide Legal Services Advocacy Project (LSAP) represents the interests of low-income Minnesotans through legislative and administrative advocacy; LSAP’s staff of attorneys and policy analysts work on the major substantive areas relevant to low-income people: immigration, housing, employment/training, government benefits, seniors issues, utilities, family law and consumer law.

The Minnesota Disability Law Center (MDLC) addresses the unique legal needs of persons with disabilities. A statewide project, MDLC provides free civil legal assistance to individuals with disabilities on legal issues that are related to their disabilities.
Centers offer a wide variety of services. Four are essential to efforts of people with disabilities to live independently, including:

INFORMATION and REFERRAL.
Centers maintain comprehensive information files on availability in their communities of accessible housing; transportation; employment opportunities; rosters of persons available to serve as personal care attendants, interpreters for hearing impaired people, or readers for visually impaired people; and many other services.

INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS TRAINING
Centers provide training courses to help people with disabilities gain skills that would enable them to live more independently; courses may include using various public transportation systems, managing a personal budget, dealing with insensitive and discriminatory behavior by members of the general public, and many other subjects.

PEER COUNSELING
Centers offer a service in which a person with a disability can work with other persons who have disabilities and who are living independently in the community. The objective is to explore options and to solve problems that sometimes occur for people with disabilities, for example, making adjustments to a newly acquired disability, experiencing changes in living arrangements, or learning to use community services more effectively.

ADVOCACY
Centers provide two kinds of advocacy:

(1) consumer advocacy, which involves center staff working with persons with disabilities to obtain necessary support services from other agencies in the community and;
(2) community advocacy, which involves center staff, board members, and volunteers initiating activities to make changes in the community that make it easier for all persons with disabilities to live more independently.

OTHER SERVICES
Centers also offer a number of other services, generally depending on specific needs of their consumers and lack of availability elsewhere in the community. Among the most frequently provided services are community education and other public information services, equipment repair, recreational activities, and home modifications.
