

Seeking PARTICIPANTS

As the Near North and Willard Hay neighborhoods change with the introduction of the Blue Line, we are looking for young people interested in documenting places and stories to together imagine the future.

Disposable Camera Workshop

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH, 11-11:30 AM

📍 North Commons Recreation Center

After a briefing, each participant will get their own (free) disposable camera. Over the next week, participants are tasked with collecting images of the places and faces of their neighborhoods. Cameras can be returned in person at the following workshop or by mail. All participants will receive physical and digital copies of their photographs

Oral History Workshop

📅 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH, 11AM-1PM

🍴 (Lunch provided) 📍 North Commons Recreation Center

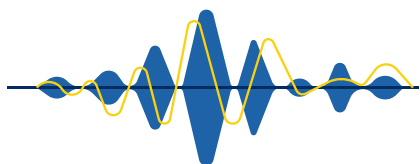

Using audio recorders and ASMR microphones, participants will conduct interviews with each other and collect sounds from the park.

Zine Making Workshop

📅 SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2ND, 11AM-1PM

🍴 (Lunch provided) 📍 North Commons Recreation Center

Participants will make 1-page zines (a form of DIY self-publication) by collaging photographs, drawings, and text. Participants will be able to photocopy multiples.
