- Cedar Lake Parkway will be closed to vehicles from Xerxes Avenue to Burnham Road in Minneapolis starting July 6 for 16 days. Access between Cedar Lake Parkway and Burnham Road will remain open.
- Pedestrians and bicyclists will have access across the work zone for the entire duration. Access during the closure will be limited to one side of the road and will shift to the south side of the roadway to accommodate the work.
- Crews will install tunnel sheeting through the intersection and then reestablish the roadway.
- A future closure lasting six months (minus the duration of this closure) will be needed to excavate and construct the tunnel. Tunnel excavation is anticipated to start later this year, we will provide updates when that work is scheduled.
- Minneapolis Park Board closed Cedar Lake Parkway to vehicle traffic through July 19. For updates and more info: www.minneapolisparks.org
