Integrated Public Art

APRIL 2015

Purpose

• Reflect community values and history
• Enhance the unique identity of stations
• Aid in passenger wayfinding
• Promote transit use and community pride

Process

• 6 to 8 artists selected to work with public to design art
• Station Art Committees and the public provide input on the Integrated Public Art in spring/summer 2015
• Artist designs incorporated into all 17 stations and the Operations and Maintenance Facility
• Art fabrication and installation during construction