Activities through September

Crews have completed all major construction activities at the Coon Rapids Lift Station. Crews will still be on-site to remove the temporary wastewater conveyance system, complete landscape restoration, and other miscellaneous activities through October.

Testing has begun and is estimated to be completed in late September.

Construction activities and schedules are subject to change due to weather and other unforeseen circumstances.

Picture Above: New stairs have been installed inside the wet well.

Picture to the Right: The generator room is being cleaned up before restarting the lift station.