Testing Begins on the Corcoran Lift Station

Crews with the Metropolitan Council Environmental Services (MCES) began testing the new lift station located near the intersection of Brockton Lane and Bass Lake Road for reliability. Once testing finishes up in early June, the lift station will begin operation and the construction site will be restored.

As a reminder, the area will remain an active construction zone until restoration is complete in June.

Contact us

Email: info@corcoranliftstationproject.com
Hotline: 763-280-7111
Web: www.metrocouncil.org/sewerconstruction/corcoran

SIGN UP FOR PROJECT UPDATES

Have updates delivered directly to your email or phone! Visit us online at:
www.metrocouncil.org/sewerconstruction/corcoran
And enter your information. When we update the website, you'll be the first to know.