Bradford Ln. Reopens Tomorrow, August 17

Good news! Crews have been wrapping up work at the new lift station at the southeast corner of Bradford Ln. and Wilshire Blvd., and plan to reopen Bradford Ln. to traffic tomorrow, August 17.

You may still see some additional work in the area during the next few weeks as crews pave the final layer of asphalt on the road and work on miscellaneous restoration items, but Bradford Ln. will remain open.

Thank you for your patience during the road closure and lift station reconstruction!
